Investigations Reveal Improper Tax Evaluations – By Jeff Maehr

The Free Press has routinely receives documentation from ongoing investigations in various areas of corruption in Archuleta County. One of those areas that can now be reported on involves Property Taxes and how the County, and its citizens, are allegedly being over taxed because of apparent under-valuations of several large properties, and possibly many more, to be determined later.

Investigative sources who wish to remain anonymous have aerial and ground photographs, as well as County documents dated July 13, 2009, alleging evidence that Robert Moomaw, County Commissioner, has been underpaying the County in property taxation under the guise of his property being “agricultural property.”

One option for being assessed on your property which the County follows is that of being listed as an “agricultural” property. Under the laws involving being listed as an agricultural property, one must meet one of the following criteria:

1. Grazing Cattle or growing food products, as the primary use of your property.
2. Breeding horses, or maintaining horses as part of an outfitter operation.
3. Providing riding horses as a business, not related to outfitting.

In addition to this, the Ag property MUST be unfenced enough so that ranchers can receive access through the property for grazing their livestock. The problem is that documentation shows Mr. Moomaw’s 51 acre property is fully electrically fenced, during which his property has been assessed at agricultural tax levels.

Photographic evidence clearly shows that all four sides of Mr. Moomaw’s property are fully fenced, thereby causing a conflict not only with the ranchers who have a lease for such access, (possible tortious interference with a contract?) but allowing Mr. Moomaw to pay somewhere around $30 on his own property taxes on 51 acres with a superior 4000 sq ft. house and 7200 sq ft. superior barn. On top of this, the house is listed as “fair” and the superior barn with luxury apartment above the barn area is listed as “average.” Why would they be listed as “fair” and “average” when this property was featured in the Art Council Home and Garden Tour July 12th of 2009?

Records clearly reveal that Mr. Moomaw’s property has apparently been grossly undervalued, according to the Assessor’s own criteria as substantiated by construction experts, and County records. Keep in mind that the County assesses you and me by certain criteria, so why not Mr. Moomaw?

While investigating this issue, it was discovered that another resident’s property in the same Echo Valley Ranch area, owned by Mr. Steve Hurt, another agricultural status property, may also be fully fenced. In addition the home is listed as 25% completed in the July 13, 2009 County documents, and was assessed as such, even though the home has been 100% completed for over 1 and a half years.

Investigators have compiled data showing that a property that is 1/4 acre in size with a modest home has a property tax of approximately $1300 per year, while Mr. Hurt’s property taxes are approximately $950 in 2008... for 51.6 acres, with a 4200+ sq ft luxury home, valued at only $237,000, and a 1075 sq. ft. finished attached garage on it and both only assessed at being 25% completed according to 7/13/09 documents. What’s wrong with this picture?

There are 1400 Ag properties in Archuleta County. The question to ask is how many of these are being assessed properly and fulfill Ag qualifications? Another issue which came up was people with legitimate Ag qualifications are possibly being discriminated against, and denied Ag

It began small, and now it is about to affect you and your family.

First it was Randy Weaver, widower, whose wife was murdered by an FBI sniper. The sniper was, Lon Tomohisa Horiuchi (born 9 June 1954), is a 1976 West Point graduate and U.S. F.B.I. sniper who was charged with manslaughter following the shootings during the Ruby Ridge standoff. Charges were later mysteriously dropped.

FBI sniper at Ruby Ridge. Aug. 22 1992, Horiuchi fired a shot at a man ducking into the cabin. The shot killed Vicki Weaver [wife] as she stood inside the cabin behind the door, holding her infant daughter, Elisheba. The killing occurred on the second day of an 11 day standoff that began with a shoot out that killed the Weavers son Samuel, 14 and U.S. Deputy Marshal William Degan. The federal government, though, is leaping to Horiuchi’s defense, because he was obeying an order. But the Nuremberg and My Lai prosecutions have established that “I was just following orders” is no excuse for killing innocent people.

Next it was Waco, Texas, where Horiuchi was later deployed during the Waco Siege.

The Waco Siege, also known as the Waco Massacre, began on February 28, 1993. A subsequent 51-day siege by the Federal Bureau of Investigation resulted in more than 20 children and two pregnant women, being killed . It ended on April 19 when fire destroyed the building where seventy-six people were killed by the government.

Then on April 19th, 1995, 168 people died in the Oklahoma City bombing. And prior to the bombing, the governor’s brother had written a novel about a man named Timothy McVeigh but spelled differently, that blew up a federal building.

Last, it was 911, where 2,974 victims died in what many call the burning of the Reichstag.

Using common sense, we see a pattern; first a family, then 76 people at Waco, then 168 people at OKC, then 2,974 at the WTC. A pattern that has to increase each time, to manifest the same psychological impact in order to manipulate the desired political outcome. However, the killers are probably not done which means in their next attack, to get the affect they desire will mean killing many, many, more than died in the 911 tragedy.

What is happening in my opinion, is a cold, and ruthless series of events that creates chaos in our country, this is death by a thousand cuts. The people doing this are no doubt the ruling elite, and use these events to manifest their goals through preplanned tragedies. Their final goal is to bring about what they have always wanted, total and complete, imperial military take over of the people of the United States, and the world.

I believe their next efforts will soon result in Medical Martial Law, and in the process many, many, people are going to die.

However for this plan to work, the attacks always have to be presented to the public in a manner that cloaks their true goals, and intentions. This way much of what has to be done, can be done in the open, by worker bees in public servant positions.

The Flu Summit of 2009, explained in the news release below, is one of their final steps in preparing for mandatory vaccinations, soon to be

Millions of people across the country continually scratch their heads in wonder ,questioning how so many other millions of other presumed intelligent Americans can continue to deny reality. I mean, it is dumbfounding that some can be in such denial of the obvious facts.

For example, we heard from the mouth of Obama, many great sounding words... promises that he'd be more transparent and open, yet he has spent close to 1 million dollars on attorney fees to prevent any of his records from being exposed.

Promises that he'd minimize or eliminate lobbyist activities in Washington, but has backed off that. Promises that the Constitution would be the prevailing law of the land... and yet he's violating his own oath of office regarding upholding the Constitution through his countless spending projects, his very likely ineligibility to even be President, and countless other violations of the supreme law of the land... and we still have people willing to support him and his sociality policies that are clear to those who haven't been infected by this delusion of "change" he's hypnotized so many into blindly and mindlessly accepting.

Why do people seem so bent on ignoring reality and the obvious facts? In a court of law, the evidence against Obama would be irrefutable and any ethical and thinking jury would have no problems seeing through the lies and have to bring a verdict of guilty against Barack Hussein Obama.

Why does a mindless media continue to deny the eligibility story using hearsay worthless talk with no proof of anything other than their bias and their devotion to the new American Messiah?

How can we help these poor deluded individuals who refuse to think... who can't argue their way out of bed, and who seemingly are making themselves enemies of the American People and Constitution... in other words traitors? First, like an alcoholic, these people must realize they are Obama Zombies and admit it. Admit they are refusing to face the obvious facts... admit they can't prove anything they seemingly have swallowed hook, line and sinker... admit that they may well have made the biggest collective American mistake in history.

We need a check list here... one provided by readers...

You know you are an Obama Zombie if you believe...

1. That acting unconstitutionally is "OK" if you are the President.
2. That being a U.S. natural born citizen to be President isn't a big deal.
3. That voting for "change" was a wise, advanced decision when the type of "change" wasn't even discussed or known.
4. That you deserve an illegal bailout, health care paid by someone else, "free" handouts, or any other leaching, blood-sucking parasitic program designed to entice you into the la-la land of free living.
5. That guns are the enemy and people shouldn't be able to protect themselves from bloodsucking vampires who feed on those who are really alive, or from those who are barely alive and are moving toward the level of the undead.
6. That Obama spending 1 million dollars to hide his records is naturel, normal behavior for someone in public office who hasn't proven he is eligible to be president and yet promised "transparency."

7. That spending 10+ trillion dollars in 6 months is healthy for the economy of present and future Americans, and that corporate bailouts, ignoring real human needs is good leadership.

8. It's ok that the average American citizen cannot get a passport without a real birth certificate, but the President doesn't need to produce his to prove he's a natural born citizen and eligible to be President.

9. It's ok to not read the bills before voting on them because they are to BIG!

10. Rapidly spending money like an undisciplined 2-year-old hyped on red bull can lead to any future smiley-face America.

11. That Socialist Health Care will make or keep you healthy!

12. It's ok to rob the rich and think you will receive one penny from it.

13. You believe that the Town Hall meetings on the ObamaCare health "reform" are filled with "hired protestors," or the anger being shown is "manufactured."

We've lost the ability to think critically on so many American issues. We are still caught up in the Republican vs Democrat foolishness and distractions. We are accepting the lies of media that our neighbors are the enemy instead of seeing the real enemy and fighting THAT.

Why is a website offering $25,000,000 to Barack Hussein Obama if he will produce his "real" long-form birth certificate to America? <http://www.rewardforobamasbirthcertificate.com/>.

Why is another website offering $10,000 to the hospital which can prove Obama was born there? Why is an investment advisor offering $100,000 to ANYONE who can produce the long form of Obama's birth certificate? Why isn't it showing up, even with those offers?

The nation is asleep at the wheel, and seemingly, Americans are casting a blind eye and mind to the real issues, and refuse to believe the logical and obvious facts. Imagine your day in court and this kind of bias was directed at YOUR rights by unjust judges of facts. It is the Rule of Law and the Constitution many are ignoring and resisting, which is treason.

The truth is gaining ground, and more groups are joining to contribute to solutions, not just complaining. Have YOU contributed yet?

“Socialist Number” Confirming Member of the New World Order - jail4judges.org

It is no secret that our nation, and the entire world, is going the way of the New World Order. We are told that we shall have a New World Order whether or not we like it: “On February 17, 1950, James Paul Warburg confidently declared to the United States Senate: ‘We shall have World Government, whether or not we like it. The only question is whether World Government will be achieved by conquest or consent.’” <http://www.scribd.com/doc/3541836/The-New-World-Order-By-Conquest-or-Consent>

As those of you who have had past military experience know, when we were inducted into the military we had to raise our right hand and swear by an oath to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic. We were all assigned a military identification number called a “Serial number,” and told that we must remember it. We were also taught that if we were captured or confronted by the enemy, according to the Geneva Convention, the only information we were to give was “Our name, rank, and serial number,” and no more.

Recently the Veterans Administration circulated among the homeless here in Los Angeles looking for Veterans. I acknowledged myself as a veteran, and they set up an appointment for me at the Veterans Administration, which took place just this week.

As identification I dutifully give them my name and my serial number. (They were not interested in my rank.) But what was interesting was that they pressed me for something external and foreign to that required by the Geneva Convention, to which our country was bound, and that “something” was a Socialist Number which identified me as “a member in good standing of the New World Order.”

Since did not classify myself as a member of the New World Order in good standing, or otherwise, there arose a problem. It seems our military has been taken over by a foreign power as described in our Declaration of Independence as “... [C]ombined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving ... assent to ... acts of pretended legislation.”

So I asked them why they needed a Socialist Number. Their answer was so they could identify us. Wait a minute! I was taught in the military that this is precisely why we were to memorize our serial number so they could identify us, and this was the only number we were to give to the enemy. What has happened to our military? Has it now become an enemy agent? Was I to now be tortured until I surrendered further information to the enemy?

It appears to me that all of this world’s system has gone a-whoring after this foreign number that identifies its card-carrying members in good standing of the New World Order. But what if I did not want to be a member of this New World Order? Or have a conscience against it? Have I no choice? The very thought of this reminds me of Revelation 13:8, “And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.”

Back in the early days of the New World Order this Socialist Identification Card had printed upon its face, “Not to be used for identification,” to assure it would never be used as identification. If fact, when it was first devised, the Christians and the conscientious screamed “Mark of the Beast! Mark of the Beast! Mark of the Beast!” and referred to Revelation 13:16, 17, “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.”

To squelch this protest, the words, “Not to be used for identification” was printed on the front of the Socialist Card, and everyone was assured it would never ever be used for identification. In was in this manner the New World Order slipped in their Socialist Identification Number, knowing that after the protests died down, they would eventually remove these words and gradually start asking for, and eventually demanding, the production of that number for everything, whether it be for job applications, marriage, banking, or even for travel by flying and/or driving. Eventually their goal is to include buying and selling. You can count on this direction of the development toward a value-added tax (VAT).

The objective of the New World Order is to get everyone serving and worshipping this foreign socialist number as their god. Their doctrine is the antithesis of John 1:1-3 “In the beginning was the [Number], and the [Number] was with god, and the [Number] was [g]od. The same was in the beginning with [g]od. All things were made by [the Number]; and without [the Number] was not any thing made that was made.” This change is to be so subtle so as “to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.” Mark 13:22.

So in conclusion I ask all of you reading this: Are you a card-carrying member in good standing with the New World Order?

status for their property. Wasn’t it Mr. Moomaw who was instrumental in eliminating numerous employees from the Assessors office in the County budget “crunch” early 2008, while at the same time authorizing a $22,000 three day County Manager and Commissioner retreat in LaPlata County, which, by the way, Keren Prior and previous Commissioner Robin Schiro refused to attend.

It is unconscionable that the wealthy would apparently knowingly defraud the County despite the financial straights our County is in, all the while YOUR property taxes go up, supported by the same commissioner underpaying taxes. After all, they have to make up this lost revenue somehow, right?

The slap in the face on this issue is that Mr. Moomaw is the “chair” of the Board of Equalization,” the very people who hear your appeals on outrageous property tax issues. Can anyone say “conflict of interest?”

Shouldn’t Mr. Moomaw know what proper valuations should be, especially for his own property? Despite the gross undervaluation of the Moomaw’s property, Mrs. Moomaw allegedly strongly protested even these low taxes.

Ongoing investigations will continue to determine the depth of this type of fraud. In addition, this, and quite a few other criminal issues are being documented for Grand Jury investigations, both here in Archuleta County, and in LaPlata County, where other County residents are providing similar data on local government corruption.

The bottom line is that there can be no positive change within our County until all County officials are held accountable for their actions. They should be above reproach, and leading the way in character and ethics, not lowering the standard of conduct.

The Colorado Bureau of Investigation is being contacted on this, and investigators will be working with them, as well as other agencies and groups to bring this to the public’s consciousness. We simply MUST act against any wrong behavior by ANY public servant, or private citizens who feel they are above the law.

Is it too much to ask that our servants treat us the same way they treat themselves, especially when we give them a living?

Home Foreclosures... Wrecking People's Lives Under the Color of Law! Staff Report

The Free Press is being kept apprised of the ongoing saga of how fraud and deception are playing a part in the loss of millions of homes across America. As investigations continue, the lies come to light, and this is providing those who are willing to act with an unprecedented opportunity to not only stop the loss of their home, but to also expose the scam for what it is... pure theft of property.

Here's the synopsis of the scam: You purchase a piece of property, with the understanding that someone is "loaning" you the money. You sign the documents believing you know who the actual lender or investor really is, (these are pretender lenders) but you don't in most cases. This document now goes into what is likely a pre-sold "pool" along with many other mortgage documents for which most investors unknowingly pay more than what the actual value of the individual mortgages are.

There are many hands that are now between you and the investor, and large sums of money are being made simply because of your signature allowing the securitization of the mortgage documents... and all of this unbeknownst to you OR the actual investor.

Those foreclosing on most properties are not even the actual lenders, and have NO authority to be acting on their behalf, and you can prove this, whether you are in foreclosure or still current. If fraud is involved, you have rights and the law on your side. You simply have to make a request for the individual facts of your mortgage, which the law requires the mortgage companies to answer within 60 days.

This is a no brainer for anyone with a mortgage. You have the right to verify the financial facts of your contract, and if it is a lie, as most of them are, you have recourse which can change your life. Remember, in many cases many times the value of your mortgage has exchanged hands, all because of YOUR signature, and oftentimes, the original investor has already been paid off on the investment, and yet, you are still having to pay the pretender lenders... which is fraud.

What do you do? You simply download the document we've received called a Qualified Written Request (QWR), and send it to all the mortgage companies you've dealt with from day one. The single greatest STRUCTURED WATER: 75% of North Americans are chronically dehydrated. Even mild dehydration slows metabolism, causes fatigue, reduces short-term memory, and increases existing health challenges. Drinking the right water is even more important than drinking more.

Water is one of the most essential components of the human body. Water regulates the body's temperature, cushions and protects vital organs, and aids the digestive system. Water not only composes 75% of all muscle tissue and about 10% of fatty tissue, it also acts within each cell to transport nutrients and dispel waste. Because water composes more than half of the human body, it is impossible to sustain life for more than a week without it.

Drinking Structured Water is cheap insurance. One of the easiest ways to help the body function optimally and remain disease-free is to keep it well hydrated. By drinking Structured Water throughout each day, it assists our bodies' ability to flush toxins and metabolic waste.

Research has shown that proper hydration may minimize chronic pains such as rheumatoid arthritis, lower back pain and colitis, as well as lower cholesterol and blood pressure. Most health practitioners advise that if we simply drank enough water to keep our bodies sufficiently hydrated, many of the chronic diseases we find today would be seriously abated.

Research has also shown chronic dehydration to be the root cause of many diseases associated with aging (e.g. arthritis, GI disorders, senile dementia). To compensate the situation, our thirst signals decline as we become accustomed to being dehydrated as we age. Dehydration in the elderly can become a real problem.

Not all water is created equal. Structured Water holds in the excess stable oxygen. It will help the body assimilate this water to a greater degree than ordinary water. Our bodies contain structured water when we are born. However, as the human body grows older, it is subjected to stress, contamination, pollutants, free radicals, poor diet and other external factors. The body begins to dehydrate and the structured cell water which we are born with, begins to diminish, losing its effective shape. The result is that our ability to absorb water begins to decrease as we age.

By using a Structured Water Unit one can actually smell, feel and taste the difference immediately. Think of what it can mean to your family's good health and well being. You can drink water directly from your tap. Think of what this translated in savings: not having to buy plastic bottled water...

You need to be aware they plan to inject the public with serum from the very company that supposedly through accident, released 72 kilos of live avian virus to 18 countries. So, meet your friendly drug company Baxter. I'm sure Katrina victims are getting a really cozy feeling about their government's plan to help them.

Obama Administration Calls on Nation to Begin Planning and Preparing for Fall Flu Season & the New H1N1 Virus

Administration Leaders Say that Flu Preparedness is a “Shared Responsibility” Announce New Funding for States and New Nation-Wide Flu Prevention Campaign at flu.gov

The Obama Administration sent a strong message to the nation today that it is time to start planning and preparing for the fall flu season and the ongoing H1N1 flu outbreak and that the federal government is prepared to commit resources, training, and new tools to help state and local governments and America's families get ready.

White House Homeland Security Advisor John Brennan, Secretary of Health and Human Services Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano, Secretary of Education Arne Duncan joined with delegations from 54 states, tribes and territories today at the H1N1 Influenza Preparedness Summit at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., to kick-off the government's nation-wide fall flu preparedness efforts.

“The President and the administration are actively engaged in mitigating the effects of the H1N1 flu virus and developing a national response framework and action plan that builds on the efforts and lessons learned from this spring’s initial onset to prepare for the possibility of a more serious fall outbreak of the virus,” said White House Homeland Security Advisor Brennan in his address to summit participants.

“Over the course of coming weeks and months, we will move aggressively to prepare the nation for the possibility of a more severe outbreak of the H1N1 virus,” said HHS Secretary Sebelius. “We ask the American people to become actively engaged with their own preparation and prevention. It’s a responsibility we all share.”

“The federal government is working together with its federal, state, local and tribal partners to develop a nation-wide plan to combat the H1N1 flu that incorporates the lessons we learned this spring,” said Homeland Security Secretary Napolitano. “The H1N1 Summit will allow us to continue this aggressive preparation for all possible H1N1 virus outbreak scenarios to ensure that we are doing everything possible to keep our country safe and healthy.”

“Effectively dealing with a potential H1N1 outbreak requires all of us — parents, educators, health providers, and local, state and federal governments — working together on our emergency management plan,” said Education Secretary Duncan. “Today’s Flu Summit is an important step in

Tap water:
If it's structured, it's okay!

Structured water represents the Holy Grail of hydration, the only way to deliver energy into each cell.

Structured water is beautiful. Good things happen with each photon-infusing sip.

By way of contrast, unstructured water — which includes distilled and reverse osmosis — is discordant. It actually takes energy, and dehydrates.

Now, structured water is available right from the tap, through our Bio-Photon Water Hydration units from Nature's Hydration. No moving parts. No electricity. Just life sustaining, toxin removing, energy.

For faucets, shower heads, gardens, homes, and businesses, you owe it to yourself to tap in to real water. It's structured for you.

that direction. Our primary goals at the Department of Education are the health and well being of students, faculty and staff, and ensuring that, in the event of any school closures, the learning process will continue.”

Maryland Governor Martin O'Malley moderated a Governors panel with participation via videolink from Governor Jim Douglas of Vermont, Governor Jim Doyle of Wisconsin, Governor Mark Parkinson of Kansas, Governor John Baldacci of Maine and Governor Jodi Rell of Connecticut.

“When responding to a national pandemic or a national recession, the basic principles of smart government remain the same — to increase efficiency, openness, and transparency in everything we do. Today’s summit illustrates our collective commitment to that goal,” said Maryland Governor Martin O'Malley. “The experience in the spring taught us that while earlier pandemic flu planning efforts were effective, there are also areas for improvement. Effective response requires accurate and timely information that is as close to real time as possible. We share the commitment of the Obama Administration to constantly monitor, evaluate and improve these processes as we continue to lead the world in emergency preparedness.”

Throughout the one-day summit, Administration officials laid out specific ways that states and local governments could start their planning and preparation efforts and announced new programs and resources to help state and local governments, the medical community and every day America prepare for H1N1 and the fall flu season.

First, HHS will make available preparedness grants worth a total of $350 million. These grants were funded by Congress in the latest supplemental appropriations bill and they will give state and local public health offices and health care systems valuable resources to step up their preparedness efforts.

Second, the federal government will centralize communications about H1N1 and seasonal flu on the federal government’s new Web site www.flu.gov. This one-stop comprehensive site brings together flu-related information from across HHS and other federal agencies. The expanded site builds on the pandemic planning information long presented on www.pandemicflu.gov, and incorporates information about the novel H1N1 flu as well as the seasonal flu.

Finally, HHS is launching a new PSA campaign contest to encourage more Americans to get involved in the nation’s flu preparedness efforts by making a 15-second or 30-second PSA. Officials at the summit stressed the idea of “shared responsibility” when it comes to combating the flu and the goal of the new HHS PSA campaign contest is to tap into the nation’s creativity to help educate Americans about how to plan for and prevent the spread of H1N1 influenza. HHS will evaluate submissions and will present the best PSAs back to the public so everyone can vote on their favorite submission. The winning PSA will receive $2,500 in cash and will appear on national television. Contest details as well more information about the larger effort to plan and prepare for the flu season are available at www.flu.gov.

Editor’s Note: The powers that be are bound and determined to make sure a pandemic appears and are doing all they can to instill fear into the population. The Center for Disease Control in Atlanta recently told the world to stop reporting swine flu cases. Why? Their answer? There are “just too many cases to keep track of.”

Sounds like more fearmongering. Has the CDC EVER made such a statement in history? NO! Why now? Because it maintains the facade of a pandemic, and people who have not investigated the true history of vaccinations, and who accept government propaganda, will likely rush right into line and get their vaccination.

The Free Press has reported previously how the creation of the swine flu vaccination was in step with the “arrival” of the swine flu, and that this flu is man-made according to experts. Their plan? To see that the vast majority of the free world receives these vaccinations against swine flu. This will include our children.

A looming threat that will surely present itself will be the forced vaccinations of all school children. This will be required as a pretext for “protecting” them for your child to stay in school. This presents a great opportunity... take them out of these schools, and truly protect them from this assault on their health.

Remember, the “flu” is a regular visitor to humanity... killing 10’s of thousands of people every year, so why is the CDC and other so-called public servant health “experts” moaning and groaning about swine flu that has killed so few, and the spread is more in word than in fact?

“My Thoughts on what is Wrong with America”

Americans need to take a stand for what is right in this country, and they better do it fast or the consequences will be irreversible. I have seen this go from a great and free country, with lots of opportunity through free trade. But the bad part is, over the years I have seen more and more Government control over us. We have let the media dictate what is right and what is wrong with America.

We have watched minorities get equal rights... yes this is true, they really do have equal rights, but yet they insist that they don't. Here are several examples of this problem, and I will no longer refer to them as minorities because that is absolutely not what they are any longer.

They have their own colleges, they have their own TV stations, they have their own organization NAACP, they have their own awards ceremonies played on live TV and no one says a damn thing.

They get concessions on virtually everything out there, from jobs to housing to free health care, and food stamps, any kind of Government funding goes to them first.

This is wrong. We as Americans need to stop punishing ourselves for what happened in the past and realize that we do not owe anyone anything for living in this country. We need to take a stand for what is right and that means pissing off the media, and taking our country back.

Another problem is immigration and benefits for “Illegal Aliens.” Hmmm... why are they called that?

Let's see, Do they pay taxes....NO! Do they have legal citizenship....No! Are they a burden on the economy...Yes! Do they get free money from the American people...Yes!

We as people that live in the greatest country in the world have no problem with these illegals being part of our society, as long as they do it the same way our siblings had to.

They must go through the process of becoming legal citizens in order to work and pay their dues to this great country which has given them the opportunity to work and bring home a decent paycheck.

Our so called leaders seem to be worried about every other countries problems first. This is wrong, we need to focus on our issues. One big problem is the Government has forgotten, By the People for the People. Greed has gotten hold of the politicians and the agenda has changed for the worse.

Another problem is that in America we speak ENGLISH only and we recognize God and Jesus Christ.

We will not force you to believe in anything else but we do not want to hear otherwise from others.

These are two things that our country was founded on and we have let it be pushed to the side in order to make a select few happy... Do away with the civil rights groups and remember the people that died for the freedom to have them.

We need to pull together and stop all of the useless spending of our money that helps Government control us like puppets. Let's start telling our ELECTED Officials that we are not going to put up with the bull---- any longer. If you want to serve your country then do so without asking what is in it

Obama Appoints 2 Devout Muslims To Homeland Security Posts

http://patriotupdate.com/home/story/551/Obama_Appoints_2_Devout_Muslims_To_Homeland_Security_Posts

Secretary Janet Napolitano: "Today, I am proud to make two key personnel announcements for the U.S.. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) President Obama's intent to nominate David Heyman as Assistant Secretary for Policy and my appointment of Arif Alikhan as Assistant Secretary for Policy Development.

Arif comes from Los Angeles Mayor Antonio R. Villaraigosa's office, where he served as Deputy Mayor for Homeland Security and Public Safety. As a key adviser to the Mayor, he has led the City's efforts to develop homeland security, emergency management and law enforcement initiatives, including operational oversight of Los Angeles Police, Fire and Emergency Management departments."

Mr. Alikhan was instrumental in taking down the LA Police Department's plan to monitor it's Muslim community.

States told to prepare for worst-case swine flu scenario.

<http://www.cnn.com/2009/HEALTH/07/09/obama.swine.flu/index.html> (mostly propaganda).

Health and Human Services Secretary Kathleen Sebelius told government leaders at a swine flu preparedness summit Thursday that a vaccine to fight the H1N1 virus should be ready for distribution in mid-October. But Sebelius also advised 500 government, health and education leaders to plan for the worst-case scenario of the virus reappearing with renewed strength this fall. "What we need to assume is that it will come back in a much more severe form," she said at the conference at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, outside Washington.

Commonly called swine flu, the virus is also known as influenza A(H1N1). The World Health Organization declared the virus a global pandemic last month.

Sebelius said that extensive planning to combat the spread of the virus always could be scaled back later but that officials could not delay starting work on those preparations.

"We can step back from our planning. What we can't do is wait until October," she said. The fight against H1N1 will be federally funded, the secretary said. She said the government will announce $350 million in preparedness grants on Friday, with $260 million for state health departments and $90 million for hospitals preparing for a possible surge of patients.

Editor's note: Problem here... they claimed to have had the first flu "vaccination" months ago... but now they speculate that the flu will come back in a "much more severe form." Of course, their first release of this flu was impotent... didn't do what they wanted...but now they are releasing a more weaponized form.

However, if they think it may "come back in a much more severe form," how do they already have the vaccine, since it takes 3-6 months to develop one once the virus is isolated after it has "mutated?" Of course, they already KNOW what they are delivering, and will conveniently have the vaccine... to make the bucks, and kill people at the same time. Don't believe them!

H1N1 Pandemic: Pentagon Planning Deployment of Troops in Support of Nationwide Vaccination

Militarization of public health in the case of emergency is now official. Globalresearch.ca

According to CNN, the Pentagon is "to establish regional teams of military personnel to assist civilian authorities in the event of a significant outbreak of the H1N1 virus this fall, according to Defense Department officials."

The implications are far-reaching.

The decision points towards the militarization of civilian institutions, including law enforcement and public health.

A nationwide vaccination program is already planned for the Fall. The pharmaceutical industry is slated to deliver 160 million vaccine doses by the Fall, enough doses to vaccinate more than half of America's population.

The Pentagon is already planning on the number of troops to be deployed, with a view to supporting a mass vaccination program.

It is worth noting that this involvement of the military is not being decided by the President, but by the Secretary of Defense, which suggests that the Pentagon is, in a key issue of of national interest, overriding the President and Commander in Chief. The US Congress has not been consulted on the issue.

This decision to mobilize the Armed Forces in the vaccination campaign is taken in anticipation of a national emergency. Although no national emergency has been called, the presumption is that a national public health emergency will occur, using the WHO Level 6 Pandemic as a pretext and a justification.

Other countries, including Canada, the UK and France may follow suit, calling upon their Armed Forces to play a role in support of the H1N1 vaccination program.

This is what happens where freedoms are not fought for and people are willing to be injected against their will for greed, and under the pretext of health care. If the military takes such an unconstitutional stand against Americans, they have become the enemy as well. I suspect the greatest health threat to military and civilians alike from this attempt will be lead poisoning because millions across the country refuse to have anything to do with this blatant attempt to deny choice and free will, and forcefully attack their persons.

This is an act of war against the American people and we have the God given right to defend ourselves and our kids from such satanic manipulations.

Churches, here is where you can stand up for religious freedoms against such idiocy. Mass quarantines? Now does the existence of "concentration camps" still sound crazy? Who's listening?

On top of all this, the vaccines have not even been tested at all, and yet we are talking about 160 million people receiving this garbage injected directly into their bodies. Have we lost our collective minds? People would prefer suicide on the installment plan over fighting for freedoms and rights?

Remember that this vaccine is being used even where they expect the flu to mutate by fall, making the vaccine worthless, so why are they pushing this so hard? Money, and further weakening the population for a future agenda. Where is YOUR line in the sand, or have you given up on freedom and rights?

Do you have a support structure against this? Do you know what you will do if they come to YOU and try ty vaccinate you and your kids?

It seems apparent that their attempts to weaponize the swine flu are failing, so they need to inject the virus right into us so that the pandemic they want so badly materializes.

Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) is a youth organization dedicated to restoring this republic to its original intended status. The youth of our country are the future, and schools and campuses all across America are forming YAL groups.

YAL is the continuation of Students for Ron Paul (SRP). In less than 8 months, SRP established over 500 college and high school chapters in all 50 states and over 26,000 students joined the Ron Paul 2008 campaign.

With this network, YAL seeks to recruit, train, educate, and mobilize students on the ideals of liberty and the Constitution. This is not a new beginning but a continuation of a youth movement already brewing in this country. Our objective is to facilitate its success.

A member of Young Americans for Liberty is between the ages of 15 and 39 and pays an annual due. Individuals under the age of 15 can still join, but will be considered Junior members. To start, dues are only $10/year. Benefits include subscription to "Young American Revolution" magazine,

If you are not within this age bracket, don't despair! Senior (over 39) YAL members are welcome to join for a $50 annual donation and will receive many of the same great benefits.

YAL Mission Statement

The mission of Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) is to train, educate, and mobilize youth activists committed to "winning on principle." Our goal is to cast the leaders of tomorrow and reclaim the policies, candidates, and direction of our government.

YAL Statement of Principles!

We are the Young Americans for Liberty (YAL). As Americans we recognize the God-given natural rights of life, liberty, and property set forth by our Founding Fathers. Our country was created to protect the freedoms of the individual and directed by we the people.

We recognize that freedom deserves responsibility and therefore we hold ourselves to a high moral character and conduct. Integrity emphasizes our stance towards action. Principle defines our outlook towards government. Peace and prosperity drives our ambitions towards our countrymen.

We inherit a corrupt, coercive world that has lost respect for voluntary action. Our government has failed and dragged our country into moral decay. The political class dominates the agenda with a violent, callous, controlling grip. And, for this we do not stand. We welcome limited government conservatives, classical liberals, and libertarians who trust in the creed we set forth.

WE, as Young Americans for Liberty believe:

- THAT government is the negation of liberty;
- THAT voluntary action is the only ethical behavior;
- THAT respect for the individual's property is fundamental to a peaceful society;
- THAT violent action is only warranted in defense of one's property;
- THAT the individual owns his/her body and is therefore responsible for his/her actions;
- THAT society is a responsibility of the people, not the government.

YAL is in partnership with Campaign for Liberty (campaignforliberty.org) and many other freedom groups and organizations. For more Information, go to www.yaliberty.org/

Farah today said he would donate $10,000 to the birth hospital listed on the document.

Obama has resisted pleas from a growing chorus of Americans who can't understand why he would spend more than $800,000 fighting lawsuits calling for the release of the document rather than let the American people see it.

Farah said this offer does not supplant or replace a previous offer he put on the table to provide a minimum of $10,000 to anyone providing proof he or she was present at Obama's birth.

Last week, Jason Hommel, an investment adviser, offered a $100,000 reward to anyone who can prove Obama is a natural born citizen and eligible to be president.

Three In Four Americans Support Federal Reserve Audit

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (BUSINESS WIRE) A recent poll conducted by highly respected Rasmussen Reports found that 75 percent of Americans support an audit of the Federal Reserve, our Nation's secretive, quasi-governmental central bank. Only 9 percent of respondents opposed an audit, a further indication of overwhelming support for Fed transparency.

Congressman Ron Paul's bill H.R. 1207, the Federal Reserve Transparency Bill of 2009, and S. 604, its Senate companion bill, are experiencing tremendous momentum on Capitol Hill.

H.R. 1207 currently has 279 bi-partisan cosponsors, including every Republican and 101 Democrats. S. 604 enjoys 20 cosponsors including Independent Bernie Sanders (I-VT), progressive Russ Feingold (D-WI), and conservative stalwart Jim DeMint (R-SC).

Campaign for Liberty has been the leader in a push for a Federal Reserve audit, using its nationwide grassroots network to educate millions of Americans about sound monetary policy and the need for transparency in our banking system. The groups has generated hundreds of thousands of petitions and phone calls to lawmakers, distributed massive amounts of educational material and canvassed countless neighborhoods across the country.

"Campaign for Liberty is proud to be the leader in the nationwide push for Federal Reserve transparency, and this Rasmussen poll is a strong indication that efforts are working," said Campaign for Liberty President John Tate. "The Fed is at the heart of so many of our Nation's financial problems and Americans deserve to know what is going on behind the shroud of secrecy. Through innovative mobilization efforts, both online and on the ground, we are bringing this critical issue to the American people with overwhelming success."

Mandatory Vaccinations in Greece

Greece has become the latest country to announce it will enforce a mandatory swine flu vaccination program, despite fears about the jabs containing mercury and squalene.

Despite the fact that there have been no deaths whatsoever from swine flu in the Mediterranean country, the Greek government has resolved to immunize its entire population of 12 million, all but guaranteeing that several thousand at least will be injured or be killed by the vaccine which is set to be fast tracked in Europe with no human testing at all.

"We decided that the entire population, all citizens and residents, without any exception, will be vaccinated against the flu," Health Minister Dimitris Avramopoulos said after a ministerial meeting.

"We are only waiting for the European Union's approval to start vaccinating everyone," a Health Ministry official told Reuters.

As we highlighted last week, many batches of the H1N1 vaccine will contain mercury, a toxin linked with autism and neurological disorders. Cases of autism in the U.S. have increased by 1,500 per cent since 1991, which is when vaccines for children doubled.

"Cash for Clunkers" Program May Cost $45,354 per vehicle By Avery Goodman's Instablog

The "Cash for Clunkers" program has been a "great success", at least according to the government, and the auto industry. Within days of its kickoff, all $1 billion allocated to the program has been used up by Americans who have eagerly lined up to trade their clunkers for new vehicles. Some refreshingly honest reporting has come from Edmunds.com, a car buying site that is telling the truth, in spite of benefiting from an increase in business and site traffic, due to the program.

According to Edmunds, about 200,000 old low mileage cars would normally traded in, every 3 months, in exchange for more efficient higher mileage cars, without this program. The highest rebate is $4,500, and the lowest is $3,500. If everyone qualified for $4,500 per vehicle, about 222,000 vehicles would have just taken advantage of the government's money. At $3,500, 286,000 vehicles will have been sold.

I assume that, given all the raving, the government will eventually get around to assigning more money. It will take at least 2 or 3 months for the legislation to work its way through Congress. Meanwhile, if all buyers have qualified for the higher $4,500 rebate, the "cash for clunkers" program will mean a marginal increase in car sales of 22,000 this quarter. $1 billion divided by 22,000 means a net cost to the government of $45,354 per car.

Critical Facts about ObamaCare

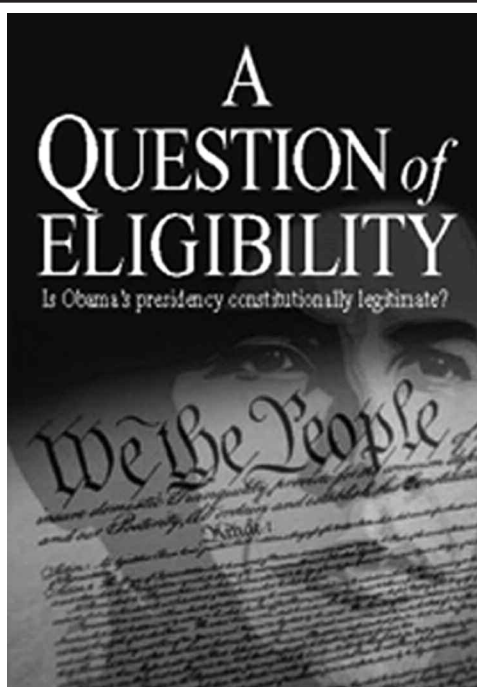

The Democratic Congress is fast-tracking a Bill ("America's Affordable Health Choices Act of 2009") to radically change not only health care, but also the role of the government in our lives. As it is currently written, the 1,018 page Bill will:

- Seek to eliminate employer and private insurance plans beginning in 2013.
- Create a new government-run agency on par with the Social Security

WHAT if the president of the United States is not constitutionally eligible to serve? Is it possible that a straightforward criterion was overlooked during a long, grueling, expensive campaign? Why are so many questions about something so simple still going unanswered? "A Question Of Eligibility" goes where no other documentary has dared to go in seeking the answers to those questions, including one that millions of Americans are asking: "Why won't Barack Obama release publicly the long-form birth certificate he claims to have from the state of Hawaii?"

In this video, you will hear from four experts on the subject: Dr. Jerome Corsi, author of the New York Times No. 1 bestseller "The Obama Nation"; Orly Taitz, the Southern California lawyer who has led the legal fight to secure the evidence of Barack Obama's eligibility; Alan Keyes, a third-party presidential candidate in 2008 and the man who challenged Obama for the Illinois U.S. Senate seat that served as a springboard to his presidential ambitions; and Janet Porter, radio talk-show host and political activist who has championed this critical and threatening constitutional issue. for me when I am gone. And remember we only have one race, AMERICAN. And one language ENGLISH. So you must be willing to be one nationality and speak the same language in order to enjoy the freedoms that our brothers and sisters died for.

There is so much more that I could add to this, but I feel this gets the point across. It's time for action.

Let's not let these liberals destroy our country any further. All we need now is a good leader to take control of this situation and bring back the basic constitutional rights that we have.

Happy with Restaurant

My name is Mike and my family and I have been coming to Pagosa for years. Our family loves this town, the only thing we didn't care for much was the restaurants. Not that they were bad, they were predictable. Until now I have been to many restaurants world wide and have seen the good, the bad and the ugly in a few. Ole miners steak house is the good! There new head chef is amazing. What an asset he is to this community!

Our family was able to meet chef Grant. Over the winter I was truly impressed with his talent, kindness and most of all, his humbleness. I spoke with the owner as well, (Herman, who loves Grant and what he has done with his restaurant. Also, which I was informed of, his chef (Grant) has won awards, attended culinary school in Chicago, and has worked in 5 star restaurants. Pagosa should be honored.

We sure are honored, as well as many others in your community our family has spoke with. Chef Grant's new summer menu is even better then the winter. If you haven't been to Ole Miners Steak House, it's a must for all.

We have told everyone we know world wide to visit Pagosa Springs and Ole Miners Steak House featuring the amazing, intelligent Chef Grant. Pagosa sure discovered gold finding this great chef. Thank you for all your community has to offer. We truly love all this wonderful town has to offer. We will return with our friends and family!

Where is America Today?

"Ladies and gentlemen, This is a time for courage.

"We are gathered here today on the Plains of West Texas in common purpose. We are here to remind our government that this is our country, We the People are still in charge, and our government is still our servant and not our master.

"Our Nation's founding document is The Declaration of Independence. It tells us that our rights come from God and not from a small group of elite men and women.

"Our Constitution starts with the words "We the People." Our Constitution was written for ordinary Americans like you and me. Our Constitution protects us from our government and from the politicians.

"Our President has complained that our Constitution gives ordinary people too much protection.He has ridiculed us for the high value we place on our Bibles, our guns, our personal property, and our liberty. He tells us we do not deserve to keep the money we have earned. We are told freedom has not worked. Personal responsibility, free enterprise, and Liberty have not been effective. Our government will now make more of our decisions for us. Other than our military, I can think of not one government agency I have ever found to be helpful.

"And speaking of our military, how about those Navy Seals blowing the heads off those three terrorist pirates? Don't you just wish our entire government would function with such efficiency, professionalism, and courage? We watch in disbelief as our beloved United States is weakened economically, militarily, and morally by a radical President and his eager accomplices. What has taken generations to build is systematically destroyed and replaced with the same Socialist evil that brought poverty, destruction, and despair to untold hundreds of millions.

"The problems we face today have occurred because we have not defended our Nation from Socialism. For too long we have allowed the wrong people to make the worst possible decisions.The Bible warns us of class hatred. The radical leadership of our government daily fans the evil flames of class envy. Our European and Canadian friends beg us to not make the same Socialist mistakes they did. =2 0The President of the European Union warned our President that his Socialist economic plans are taking the world down the "road to Hell."

"The path to power for Socialists includes taking God and guns from the citizens. Without spiritual and physical protection, people cannot defend themselves and their liberty. They soon become slaves. We are angered that our President apologizes for the exceptionalism and heroism of the United States of America. We are deeply troubled he told others the United States is not a Christian nation. We are angered that we have been called cowards and racists because we oppose Socialism. Socialism is not racial. Socialism is an equal opportunity destroyer. We are angered that a recent Department of Homeland Security report has singled out our military men and women who are returning home as being radical threats. The report also characterizes you and me as right-wing extremists and radicals because we favor smaller government and lower taxes.

"You and I are average citizens who believe just like most of our fellow Americans. We want our government to leave us alone and to keep its hands off our money, our religion, or guns, our private property, and our lives. We demand that our government stop spending money it does not have.

"Stop confiscating our money and private property.

"Stop printing money.

"Stop subsidizing Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and the other failed financial institutions and companies.

"Mr. President, stop appointing tax cheats to positions of power and influence.

"Mr. President, secure our borders.

"Mr. President, do not divert money from our missile defense, F-22 Raptors, and other vital military equipment. This gives encouragement, aid, and comfort to our enemies. Protecting us is your number one job.

"Mr. President, do not give voting rights to millions of illegal aliens and felons. You have no more right to crea te new voters for your benefit than you do to use our money to buy the 2010 and 2012 Elections.

"We gather peacefully here today because there is a growing concern for what our government is doing to us and to our future. We fear for the very survival of our Republic. Yet there is much to make us hopeful and to fill our hearts with optimism and courage. This is still our country! The Constitution of the Unites States belongs to We the People. Our Constitution still protects us from our government.

"Call every possible elected official, including our President, Vice President, and the Speaker of the House. Demand that they stop stealing our money and giving it to ACORN and their other political supporters in order to buy votes. Call Senators Cornyn and Hutchison, and (your) Representative. Thank them. Urge them to do much more. Remind them now is a time for action and not for campaigning.

"Volunteer to work on our 2010 Census. Confront ACORN. Keep our Census honest. We must not all ow our President to take control of our Census for his political

How To Legally Say 'NO'

To All Vaccines Crusador Interviews Book Author &

Acclaimed International Vaccine Expert Dr. Sherri Tenpenny.

Millions of Americans have come to distrust vaccines and mainstream medicine's vaccine agenda. There is a growing movement in this country and around the world that questions the safety and effectiveness of all vaccines for obvious reasons. Many childhood disorders such as autism, ADD/ADHD, SIDS and others have been linked to vaccines. Thousands of soldiers who served in the military have been severely disabled or in some cases even died after receiving their mandated shots. Vaccines are the most controversial subject in all of medicine.

The standard line heard from most parents once their eyes are open to the risks of vaccines is, "How will I get my child into day care or in school without their shots." Those working in the healthcare field or soldiers in the military are faced with similar questions. To help educate the people further about how to legally avoid all vaccines, Dr. Sherri Tenpenny has put together a brand new book that is absolutely necessary to have in your possession if you or a loved one don't want to vaccinate but are not sure how to get around it. As Dr. Tenpenny says on the back cover of her book, "Saying No To Vaccines is not intended to be a balanced view of vaccination literature. Pro-vaccine information is readily accessible through the American Academy of Pediatrics, the CDC, healthcare and government-sponsored organizations. This book balances the debate."

Below is a copy of an interview Crusador editor Greg Ciola conducted with Dr. Tenpenny shortly after the release of her new book:

Crusador: What was the impetus for writing your new book "Saying NO To Vaccines"?

Tenpenny: Parents needed a tool that did their homework for them. The evidence is there to support their decision to not vaccinate; you just have to do a little work to find it. Everyone seems to be so afraid of "bugs" and their potential ability to make us sick. But the reality is that we swim in "bugs" every day and we are not dropping over like flies. The only "bugs" we seem to obsess over are associated with vaccines. Only two generations ago, measles, mumps and chickenpox were normal experiences of childhood. Why we have complete fear of these infections is media and money driven and unfounded.

If the focus of Public Health was on sleep, exercise, clean water and safe, non-GMO food, we would have a healthy society without vaccines but we would not have billion dollar industries employing millions of people to keep us "healthy." The fact is, we are a very UNhealthy society with vaccines, so the Public health and argument that we must vaccinate 'for greater good' is a failure.

I put a large body of research into my first book, FOWL! and my two DVDS, documenting the dangers of vaccination. "Saying No To Vaccines" was the next logical step. It answers the question, "I've decided not to vaccinate, now what do I do?"

Crusador: What are some of the issues you cover in the book that aren't covered in your two DVD's "Vaccines: The Risks, The Benefits, The Choices" and "Vaccines: What CDC Documents and Science Reveal"?

Tenpenny: There is very little overlap between Saying No to Vaccines and the DVDs. The foundational premise of the book is to give answers refuting the 25 most common arguments used to promote vaccination. For example, parents are often told the vaccine-preventable diseases of childhood can be serious and if their child is not vaccinated, their child could die. I tell them how to refute that argument and give documentation from the medical literature to demonstrate that statement is nothing more than fear mongering. Parents are told by pediatricians there is "no evidence that vaccination harms the immune system" and there is "no evidence that vaccination can lead to chronic disease." I used the medical literature to prove the opposite is true.

Crusador: What are the most common questions you get about vaccines?

Tenpenny: The most frequently-asked question I get is about vaccination exemption, meaning, "How do I refuse the vaccine and still get my kids into school or keep my job," so by design a large part of the book covers exemptions. I included a lot of detail on how to avoid vaccinations for school situations, including college, professional situations where a job may require certain vaccines, if you are in a nursing home, foreign adoption, the military, even if you are incarcerated. I have also included a chapter on frequently asked questions about vaccination. Saying No To Vaccines has an entire section on "most frequently asked questions."

Crusador: There is a huge divide in this country between those who think you should vaccinate versus those who feel you shouldn't. The majority is still on the side of thinking that vaccines are THE answer to long-term immunity. When you do speaking engagements or radio interviews or simply talk to a pregnant woman about the need to question the safety of vaccines further, how do you present your information to make someone think twice?

Tenpenny: Even though I strongly believe that vaccines cause more harm than the "good" they supposedly do, it is important for people to see the evidence of harm from a scientific perspective and not just take my word for it. All of my information, every slide and every paragraph in my book, is referenced from a highly reputable medical journal or from the Centers for Disease Control, the CDC. People can see for themselves the one-sided, biased view of the vaccine industry, promoting that vaccines are "safe" and "protective." Almost 100% of the time, once people pull back the veil and see the rest of the story, they know that vaccination is not what the drug companies claim it to be.

Crusador: Do you feel that there is such a thing as a "safe" vaccine? If there isn't, how do you counter the mainstream medical mentality that vaccines may not be entirely without risks, but those risks are far less than the risks we would face without vaccines at all?

Tenpenny: I really felt that parents needed strong answers for when they decided to not vaccinate. Very few people are willing to say something. The risk of the vaccine is greater than the risk of the disease. The "Green Our Vaccines" movement was partially behind the reason I wrote this book. Many activists, people with very good intentions, hedge and put their support behind "safer" vaccines which are a chemical impossibility. People just need to SAY NO.

Crusador: Tell our readers a little more about the exemption clauses you discuss in your book. The medical establishment has done a terrific job of intimidating people into thinking they have to take vaccines and yet, rarely if ever will you hear about the ways to exempt yourself and family from taking vaccines.

Tenpenny: A medical exemption is available in all 50 states but must be recommended by a doctor. The exemption can be difficult to obtain and often, it only excuses future vaccination with a shot that has already caused a severe reaction. There are three exemptions available in this country - medical, religious and philosophical. As of now, 19 states accept a philosophical exemption. It is the easiest of the three to use. You request a form from the school nurse, state the reasons you don't want to vaccinate your child, sign it and give it to the school. Generally, that's it. However,

My Challenge to Bill O'Reilly

Exclusive: Joseph Farah demands Fox News host 'put up or shut up!'

I have a challenge to my old buddy Bill O'Reilly – put up or shut up!

You told your viewers this week that challenges to Barack Obama's constitutional eligibility are "bogus."

You claimed you and your news organization examined Obama's birth certificate last year and found it to be in order.

Can I ask a question, Bill? Why don't you simply reveal to your viewers exactly what you saw and what you found?

Fox News Channel's slogan is, "We report, you decide." Why don't you try actually reporting the story, rather than deciding for us?

Send Obama a birthday surprise! FedEx your personalized letter to the president demanding that he prove his eligibility by producing his birth certificate. Only 4 days left!

Here's the story, Bill, whether you recognize it or not: Tens of millions of Americans have serious doubts about Obama's right to be in office. They are concerned that the system broke down and did not require proof of his constitutional qualifications. They don't want double talk like they've been getting from politicians and the media elite. They don't want more platitudinous assertions. They don't expect to have their well-informed suspicions be ridiculed by the likes of you, Shepherd Smith, Chris Matthews, the New York Times, the Associated Press and the rest of the media monopoly singing in harmony.

The American people have figured out what you apparently are unable or unwilling to discern: Obama's hiding something. One of the somethings he is undoubtedly hiding is his birth certificate.

I will go also out on a limb, Bill, and proclaim that you were, shall we say, disingenuous when you claimed to have inspected Obama's birth certificate. If you got your hands on it, why didn't you show it to your viewers? If your goal is, as you state, to put an end to a bogus story, the obvious way would have been to share with your audience what you saw.

I don't think you saw anything, Bill.
(Column continues below)

I think maybe you saw the same thing all of us have seen, "ad nauseum," to quote Press Secretary Robert Gibbs. I think you saw the certification of live birth – a totally meaningless document with regard to proving presidential eligibility.

Why is it meaningless with regard to proving constitutional eligibility as a "natural born citizen"? Simple. There were numerous easy ways to obtain one without being born in Hawaii!

What about the other heavyweight evidence cited as conclusive by people convinced that "birthers" are just a bunch of fruit loops? Those would be the two newspaper birth announcements appearing contemporaneously in two Hawaii dailies. Surely that settles the matter? No, it doesn't. In fact, the newspaper ads were less meaningful than the certification of live birth because they were automatically generated by the issuance of that document.

So far, after listening very carefully to the case for Obama's Hawaiian birth, that is the totality of evidence I have heard. Do you have anything else, Bill? What did your crack research team find? The people have a right to know.

Knowing what I have just told you, how is it possible you can be 100 percent convinced Obama was born in Hawaii? And, even if you are, what's wrong with Obama springing for $10 and getting a copy of the original long-form birth certificate for the rest of us?

I'll go further, Bill.

I think you liked taking a cheap shot at your worthy and honorable competitor at CNN, Lou Dobbs. (See article on Lou's radio challenges! - (<http://www.wnd.com/index.php?fa=PAGE.view&pageId=105345>) Dobbs has showed great courage and independence in taking on a story against the public wishes of his network brass and bucking the tide of his entire industry.

You ought to admire that, Bill. You ought to emulate it. Furthermore, I think you chose the easy road on this story because you are sucking up to Obama in hopes of another one of those ratings-generating exclusive interviews in which the American people learn nothing.

That's not good journalism, Bill. Journalism is comforting the afflicted and afflicting the comfortable. Journalism is serving as a watchdog on government and other powerful institutions.

Where's the fairness, Bill? Where's the balance your network promises?

Where are the articulate voices who have a question for which there is no answer forthcoming: "Where's the birth certificate?"

You have chosen to join the state-run media pack and mock the genuinely civic-minded concerns of the people. For that there is no excuse. Bloviating, to use one of your favorite words, is no substitute for honest reporting.

You can't see that Obama is hiding something – hiding lots of things? His birth certificate, his school records, his college records, his law school writings, his selective service records, his travel records, his adoption records, his finances.

Come on, Bill? Is it worth it?

Where is the integrity? What do you know that I don't know? My news organization has devoted far more time, effort, resources, manpower and sweat in investigating this story than your very wealthy media conglomerate. What do you think you know that I don't know? Why are you aiding in one of the biggest propaganda cover-ups in American history?

The American people had high hopes for the Fox News Channel and shows like yours. But they have failed us in telling this most important story.

Our country is being transformed rapidly by an administration that is of highly questionable legality.

This is no joking matter.

Editor's Note:

The Bill O'Reilly show on the Obama eligibility issue was the most blatant show of ignorance, and "bloviating" that media could puke out. Talk about spin... the story came to Bill, and he, very amateurishly I might add, added more spin to the idiocy by giving hearsay testimony to you, the American people on something he couldn't have possibly "proven."

Yes, testimony, because this will come back on his pin head and he will see he is an empty talking head with no heart or soul... and he is a puppet despite the personal belief he has that he is "famous." He is a non-thinking traitor, and an Obama Zombie himself... obviously.

Request for Authentication of Obama's Alleged Kenyan Birth Certificate...

California attorney Orly Taitz, who has filed a number of lawsuits demanding proof of Barack Obama's eligibility to serve as president, has released a copy of what purports to be a Kenyan certification of birth and has filed a new motion in U.S. District Court for its authentication.

This document purports to be a Kenyan certification of birth for Barack Obama, allegedly born in Mombasa, Kenya, in 1961

The document lists Obama's parents as Barack Hussein Obama and Stanley Ann Obama, formerly Stanley Ann Dunham, the birth date as Aug. 4, 1961, and the hospital of birth as Coast General Hospital in Mombasa, Kenya.

No doctor is listed. But the alleged certificate bears the signature of the deputy registrar of Coast Province, Joshua Simon Oduya. It was allegedly issued as a certified copy of the original in February 1964.

WND was able to obtain other birth certificates from Kenya for purposes of comparison, and the form of the documents appear to be identical.

See Resource page for pictures of these documents and more information on this continuing saga.

In the last article, (7-24-09), we discussed the issue of death and where people who have died have “gone” as the Bible described it. Death is like a sleep... a few additional scriptures to reinforce this truth:

2 Sam 7:12, And when your days be fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, which shall proceed out of your bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.”

David is being addressed here, and told that he would sleep with his ancestors who also died.

1 Kings 2:10, “So David slept with his fathers and was buried.”

No mention of going to heaven for King David, just "sleeping." Notice that even King David himself knew that he would be asleep in the grave till the resurrection to spirit life as Christ and the Father have...

Ps 17:15 “As for me, I will behold your face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with your likeness.” (“With your likeness” will be addressed in a later issue, and is likely the greatest truth overlooked in the Bible).

David, as Christ Himself stated (quoted in the last paper), did NOT ascend into the heavens, but is asleep, unconscious, with no thought or awareness of time passing, waiting for the first resurrection yet to come at Christ’s return.

In this article, we will take a further look into this subject, and how the concept of an “immortal soul” is not a true Biblical position.

First, nowhere in the entire bible do the words “immortal soul” appear. Second, the word “immortal appears only once, and refers to God. Third, the word “immortality,” used 5 times, is future tense in scriptures referring to humans and present tense only once referring to Jesus Christ, who “alone” has immortality. (1 Tim 6:16).

What about “soul?” The word translated "soul" in the Old Testament, is from the Hebrew word, nephesh {neh'-fesh}, meaning;

- 1) soul, self, life, creature, person, appetite, mind, living being, desire, emotion, passion.
- 1a) that which breathes, the breathing substance or being, soul, the inner being of man
- 1b) living being.
- 1c) living being with life in the blood).
- 1d) the man himself, self, person or individual.
- 1e) seat of the appetites.

- 1f) seat of emotions and passions.
- 1g) activity of mind.
- 1h) activity of the will.
- 1i) activity of the character.

The word "nephesh" is used 734 times in the Old Testament, as "creature," "the lads life," "person," "mind," "the life of," "lust," "man," "heart of," "any," "yourselves," "for the dead," "beast," "dead body," "body of," "mortally," "slay," "at thine own pleasure," "our lives," "me," "thy life," "with the lives of," "himself," "in jeopardy of their lives," "his breath," "deadly," "the will of," "appetite," "desire," "fish," "greedy," "the ghost," "should he slay thee."

This is in context with the definition of the Hebrew word above. In Greek, the word "soul" is translated from the word "psuche," which means, (NT:5590) “breath, abstractly or concretely the animal sentient principle only.”

When you look carefully at the above Hebrew and Greek definitions, you will quickly see that the “soul” is merely the base life... the created physical living form. For example, in Genesis 1:24, it says "And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so." NKJV.

Genesis 2:7 “And the LORD God formed man [of] the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. NKJV.

The word translated "creature," referring to animals, is the SAME exact word used regarding the "soul" of mankind. Mankind was “CREATED” a living soul, and does not "have" a soul.

Consider: If the soul were truly “immortal,” then we have a problem with the word “death,” and we also have a problem because an “immortal soul” would mean that those some believe that go to a place of ever-burning fire forever if they are “bad,” ALSO have “eternal” life, and would be immortal, would they not?

Genesis 2:17 “But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it: for in the day that you eat thereof you shall surely die.” NKJV.

Ezek 18:4 and 20 “The soul that sins, it shall die.” NKJV.

These scriptures tell us, quite plainly, that a soul CAN die. But some argue, "die" really means "separation from God forever." What does the Bible say about that?

The word translated "die" in the Old Testament is "muwth" {mooth}, Hebrew, meaning:

- 1) to die, kill, have one executed.
- 1a1) to die.
- 1a2) to die as penalty), be put to death.
- 1a3) to die, perish of a nation).
- 1a4) to die prematurely by neglect of wise moral conduct).

The word translated "death" in the New Testament are as follows:

NT: 2288 thanatos - death: - deadly, be ... death.

NT:615 apokteino ap-ok-ti'-no); to kill outright; figuratively, to destroy: - put to death, kill, slay.

NT:337 anaireo an-ahee-reh'-o); to take up, i.e. adopt; by implication, to take away violently), i.e. abolish, murder: - put to death, kill, slay, take away, take up.

NT:599 apothnesko ap-oth-nace'-ko); to die off literally or figuratively): - be dead, death, die, lie a-dying, be slain X with).

NT:520 apago ap-ag'-o); to take off in various senses): - bring, carry away, lead away), put to death, take away.

NT:336 anairesis an-ah'-ee-res-is); the act of) killing: - death.

Notice especially Rom 6:23 “For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.” NKJV.

If the soul was immortal, this means it cannot die... eternal life. God tells us that sin brings on the death penalty, but that God’s gift to those who accept Christ’s sacrifice for the death penalty (being paid FOR us), and accept His word and plan, is “eternal life.” In either case, it is “eternal life” if we accept and believe that souls are “immortal.”

As mentioned earlier, no others have “immortality” except Christ, who was the first and ONLY human to be raised from the dead to immortal life.

All others will be raised in their order as God prescribes, and only THEN will they either inherit eternal life, or eternal death.

Genesis 3:19 “In the sweat of your face shall you eat bread, till you return to the ground; for out of it were you taken: for dust you [art], and to dust shall you return.” NKJV.

Humans, when they die, decompose back to

World Health Organization Secrecy Surrounding the Swine Flu Raises More Red Flags

<http://www.americanchronicle.com/articles/view/111867>

If there wasn't already enough information about the questionable Swine Flu Pandemic -- and the potentially lethal Swine Flu Vaccine being produced with mass impunity by some of the larger Pharmaceutical companies that will be used on the world populations with possibly devastating consequences -- the reported secrecy surrounding minutes of a key World Health Organization (WHO) meeting of an advisory vaccine group that was packed with executives from Baxter, Novartis and Sanofi recommending compulsory vaccinations in the U.S., Europe and other countries raises a multitude of red flags while offering more evidence that the lawsuit filed against the WHO, other world organizations and governments and the actions leading up to this 'Swine Flu pandemic' should be examined more closely.

Since the Swine Flu 'pandemic' allegedly began, it hasn't made any sense. Now the WHO is reportedly refusing to release the minutes of a key meeting, that involves executives from Pharmaceutical companies standing to make billions in profits. The WHO claims there are no minutes of the meeting that took place on July 7th -- a meeting in which guidelines on the 'need' for worldwide vaccinations adopted by the WHO were formulated by the executives of large Pharmaceutical companies. One of the UK government's top advisors -- who was among the first UK 'experts' to call the outbreak a pandemic -- on Swine Flu is reportedly a sitting board member of GlaxoSmithKline, offering more evidence of the deadly fraud being perpetrated against the world's population by their governments.

The Swine Flu has been intentionally bioengineered in laboratories. Since the WHO changed its definition of a pandemic in order to falsely create a pandemic, the WHO could force everyone in the 194 countries who comprise it to forcibly take vaccinations, impose quarantines and restrict travel.

Austrian Investigative reporter Jane Burgermeister produced verifiable evidence that the WHO supplied 72 kilos of live bird flu virus to Baxter's Austrian subsidiary to be used to manufacture swine flu vaccine. Why? The virulent material was sent out to 16 labs in 4 countries by Baxter's criminal actions under false labels designating the contaminated product as vaccine. Intentionally injecting millions of unsuspecting people with deadly 'vaccine' would be premeditated murder.

Large Pharmaceutical Company Executives in Collusion with WHO

As noted by Burgermeister, it's becoming increasingly clear that the WHO and Baxter are just elements in a much bigger criminal organization. The WHO plays a key role in coordinating the activities of labs, Pharmaceutical companies and governments with the apparent intention of implementing an illicit agenda.

The WHO gives funds, supports and covers labs such as the Center for Disease Control (CDC) to develop and patent vaccines. Then it sends the deadly bioengineered pathogens to companies to deliberately contaminate the vaccines. Something is very wrong with this picture.

During its illicitly created pandemic, the WHO orders compulsory vaccines for all residents in the 194 participating countries, following 'recommendations' from an 'advisory vaccine group' comprised of executives from the large Pharmaceutical companies who are making billions in profits for supplying deadly vaccines while being impune from the devastations that will be created by the tainted vaccines. By falsely creating a pandemic, the WHO becomes the new global authority.

Special pandemic plans -- enacted around the world and the USA in 2005 during Bush's delusional reign, providing all the more reason to be extremely suspicious -- deem that national governments are dissolved in the event of a pandemic emergency and replaced by special crisis committees who take charge of the health and security infrastructure of a country and are answerable to the WHO, the European Union and the United Nations, making them the de facto government for a large part of the world. Fortunately, so far 39 states have claimed their sovereignty because of unconstitutional and illegal actions emanating from Washington DC these past eight and a half years.

Creating mass murder and death with contaminated vaccine, economic collapse and disruption, starvation and wars will lead to further reductions in populations around the world. By creating, distributing and releasing deadly viruses and forcing deadly vaccinations, the WHO becomes the World Homicide Organization.

Two-dose Vaccines Appear to Disable the Immune System.

Naturally, you won't find any mention of this in the corporately-owned mainstream media as they're owned by the same groups that fund the WHO. For those who haven't figured it out by now, corporately-owned mainstream media has hidden the truth from the public for decades. It just became a lot more evident while they were enabling crimes committed by the Bush cabal for the first eight years of this century.

As stated earlier, the H1N1 virus was bioengineered in a laboratory and is not, nor has it ever been, a natural virus. Large Pharmaceutical companies who will profit handsomely have been in collusion with the WHO. Those are very strong accusations -- backed by a lot of evidence -- that need to be investigated thoroughly.

Two-dose H1N1 vaccines appear to be designed to disable the immune system and load a live virus in a process mirroring the one described in two WHO 1972 memos that technically outline turning vaccines into killers. A Strecker memo reveals that the WHO has been actively searching for ways to weaken the immune system according to Burgermeister.

In case you've forgotten how the U.S. Federal government uses fear to scare the population into giving the government what it wants, take a look back at the U.S. since Bush was appointed to the presidency by the Supreme Court during the 2000 national elections. Look at what has happened since the Bush cabal allowed the attacks of 9/11 to take place. Those attacks were not done by terrorists in caves. They were done with the help of the terrorists holding high offices in Washington. The government has purposely created fear to scare the American public into giving up rights and freedoms and it's time to change that.

Disturbing Illegal, Unconstitutional Legislation Forced on the American Public

More people are becoming aware of Swine Flu scare that was manufactured by the U.S. in 1976. The current scare tactic being carefully used by the government this time around could, and probably will, be a lot worse and more deadly. In order to get to the point where forced vaccinations could be carried out, it took some time to implement illegal legislation that would make it possible.

A lot of disturbing illegal, unconstitutional 'legislation' was dubiously imposed on the American public courtesy of their corrupted representatives in Congress. A lot of illegal actions were used by the Bush administration to broaden its delusionally perceived powers too. As I've said before, the problem with those illegally perceived powers is the fact that they were gained illegally, meaning they were never legal to begin with. Yet Washington continues trying to play the same games.

As with the ongoing illegal occupations of

The Archuleta County Law Club

The Law Club met July 20th and August 3rd.

Foreclosure victims have been contacting us from various parts of the country. The Qualified Written Request document is proving to be a valuable tool, even for non-foreclosure owners. Utilizing this document to force the mortgage companies to document and certify their actions in handling mortgages and payments is disclosing the extent of the fraud against millions of homeowners.

Another ongoing issue is property taxation constitutional challenges, and responses from the Assessor's office. To date, there have been no real answers on any of the questions which should have easy answers if things are actually legal and constitutional.

Lastly, the Grand Jury need for our district couldn't be more ripe. Preparations are underway to not only establish such a Grand Jury, but their docket will be quite full for a while in dealing with all the mounting evidence and complaints. The Law group along with the Archuleta County Guard plans to make official request to Judge Lyman to begin Jury choices for both LaPlata County and Archuleta County. Everyone hopes Judge Lyman will step up to the plate and perform his official duties to see that justice and law are upheld for all citizens, and that we begin to clean out any den of vipers that may exist and be feeding off of American citizens.

The next Law Club meeting will be Monday, August 17th, at the Mountain Christian Fellowship in Aspen Springs, just off 160, at 6:30. Call 903-5325 if you need directions.

The Archuleta County Guard (ACG)

The Guard met on July 27th and Aug 10th. In light of the huge amount of legal issues coming to light, and the fact that much of any groups power is in knowing what the law actually says and how to use it, the Guard decided to initially refocus mostly on Law issues which are time sensitive, and which are good learning lessons.

Topics of discussion were court "Objections," Concealed Carry weapons certification trainer presentation, Grand Jury facts and contacts, and general legal issues and answers.

Next Archuleta County Guard meeting will be Monday, August 24th, 6:30 at the same location as the Law Club meeting.

San Luis Valley Tea Party

A grass roots event organized by Randy Smith, Brenda Felmlee, Alamosa Republican Party Vice Chair and other American Activists was well attended with a first time crowd of 150 people. Ms. Felmlee thanked the Valley Courier for their announcement of the event but said they gave credit for organizing and promoting the event to the Republican Party which was responsible for neither.

Friends and family were in attendance at the first SLV Tea party held in Cole Park in Alamosa.

The Tea Parties being organized and attended throughout the US are non partisan events for the purpose of giving a voice to the People of America who are currently being ignored by elected officials, both Democrats and Republicans. In the past larger events numbering in the hundreds of thousands of participants have been ignored by the White house and Democrat majority in both houses of Congress.

More "Tea Parties," Organizational events and peaceful demonstrations are being planned for the SLV area. Look to the pages of The Southwest Free Press for information and locations.

questions you can ask is, "Who is the original investor?" and "Provide financial proof of this!"

They must be able to show a clear chain of title on your mortgage from beginning to end, and where the original note actually is. In fact, if they did not disclose the true investor at closing, your "rescission" rights haven't even started. This means you have the choice of rescinding the original contract, and getting back every penny you paid on the loan, (and forfeiting the house), or moving forward with requiring proof of all financial matters, and possibly obtaining your property free and clear of ANY mortgage.

Some have a moral dilemma with having "borrowed" money for their home and then receiving their home mortgage-free, but if you realize the fraud which has taken place at YOUR expense, and with YOUR identity creating the wealth pool, you will quickly realize that the scheme allowed the creation of vast amounts of money for many corporations... often those which have already received bailouts already paying for the mortgages.

The greed has been extensive, and this is why the housing industry has tanked... artificially inflating housing costs to create greater profits from more and more people suckered into mortgages they couldn't afford. In fact, the worse the ability to repay the loan, the better these predators benefitted.

different school systems have different rules. Some require the form annually, some require both parents to sign the exemption form, some require it to be notarized and so forth. You can find links to your state laws and more information by going to <http://www.DrTenpenny.com>

Religious exemptions are available in all other states except West Virginia and Mississippi (which only have medical exemptions). Religious exemptions can be tricky and in some states, very difficult to obtain and defend. I often recommend that people consult an attorney for this type of exemption. Some states, such as New York and New Jersey, are difficult. New York has been known to use something called a "sincerity test." Parents are literally interrogated by an attorney representing the school district regarding how sincere their religious assertions are for refusing a vaccine. A panel then decides if you are sincere enough in your beliefs to allow you to refuse vaccination on religious ground. I find these tactics absolutely appalling and akin to Inquisitioners of the Middle Ages.

Crusador: Where do you see the whole pro-vaccine movement going and what threats to our Constitutional freedoms do you see coming down the pike?

Tenpenny: The dogged determination of those who oppose vaccines, and in particular mandatory vaccination, has gained traction at a grass roots level and garnered a lot of attention from the media. I feel that we have the pro-vaccinators on the ropes. Our arguments are hard to deny and the global autism epidemic can no longer be ignored. Pro-vaccinators are using manipulation, threats and fear tactics, trying to convince everyone that vaccines are not only safe but absolutely necessary. I see the vaccine industry like a wounded Tyrannosaurus Rex, gnashing its teeth and flailing its ugly head. It won't die quickly and it will probably get worse before it gets better.

Crusador: There are many people in this country, myself included, who are concerned that there is an evil agenda to mass vaccinate the entire planet in the event of a health emergency. Do you feel that there are genuine reasons to be concerned and what might we expect to see unfold in an emergency?

Tenpenny: Executive orders and recommendations from the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) have been written that stop just short of allowing government-enforced mandatory vaccination for anthrax, smallpox and bird flu. The only way to change these policies is by standing together and boldly saying no.

Crusador: Are you still confident that with enough knowledge about the risks and dangers of vaccines enough people will wake up and say NO before Big Pharma forces its will upon the populace?

Tenpenny: I'm not sure. People tend to be sheep - Americans in particular. Look what we have allowed a small number in the White House and 545 people in Congress to do to our country. And even those people who want to effect a change have little time and few resources to do so. No one wants to stand out, speak up and challenge authority. Whatever happened to those bra-burning activists of the 1960s? However, people really are involved now, more than ever. It only takes a small, vocal minority to really make a difference. As stated years ago by

Margaret Mead, "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed it is the only thing that ever has."

Crusador: Thank you for your time, Sherri. These are excellent answers. I encourage everyone reading this interview to make every effort they can to get a copy of your new book and share it with their friends and loved ones because it is a great tool to give the average person confidence to "SAY NO TO VACCINES."

Editor's note:

Be sure to investigate this topic more on your own... we're dealing with some dangerous stuff here, and some pathologically insane people and agendas.

More Vaccine links can be located on the Resource page, P. 22, and you can also Google "Vaccination Threats" for a host of scientific evidence.

As a side note, you might like to know that vaccinations are not only a threat for human health... our beloved pets are at great risk from the vaccinations they routinely receive. In addition to this, the commercial dog or cat food most are fed is directly linked to disease and death in them. Hint: Animal feed manufacturers often use rendering plant sources including euthanized carcasses, road kill, dead animals with flea collars, etc., as a food source... Great for Fido... and Vet profits... go natural/organic and let them live like they should!

Iraq and Afghanistan, a lot of information is purposely buried and manipulated by the Federal government to justify their ongoing crimes while keeping the population in the dark. The U.S. government has specialized in double-speak and intentional deception for decades. As noted by the Centre for Research on Globalization, by artificially creating an atmosphere of fear and intimidation to weaken and disarm organized dissent against the corrupted, deadly politics in Washington, the government tries to undermine all forms of opposition and social resistance. By keeping people in the dark, the government can further their illicit agendas, and the government has no qualms about committing false flag attacks against their own population. 9/11 is proof of that.

The 'global war on terror' has repeatedly proven to be nothing more than one major fraud that has resulted in the genocide of Iraqis and the killings of thousands of U.S. armed forces. The ongoing illegal occupations of Iraq and Afghanistan are battles for the control over extensive reserves of oil and natural gas, not 'terrorists' who have been trained and funded by the U.S. CIA.

Natural disasters, 'pandemics' and 'environmental catastrophes' all play useful political roles for implementing egregious, illegal 'laws' and distorting the real causes of the crises. In this case, a pandemic is being used to justify a global public health emergency on humanitarian grounds. In this case, the 'pandemic' was illegally manufactured by the WHO.

WHO Claims Bioengineered Swine Flu Pandemic is Imminent

The Swine Flu pandemic which began while President Obama was in Mexico was timely, coinciding with the deepening economic crisis that was caused by fraudulent actions of Wall Street -- crimes the U.S. government continues aiding and abetting because the vast majority of Washington politicians have been paid off by Wall Street fraudsters.

Epidemiological data has been fabricated, falsified and manipulated by the WHO and the CDC in order to create a catastrophic emergency -- the so-called Swine Flu pandemic, threatening the livelihood of millions upon millions of people worldwide.

Data used to justify the WHO's worldwide pandemic has been extremely scanty in the least. With no evidence, the WHO asserted that a 'global outbreak of the lab bioengineered Swine Flu pandemic is imminent.' A lot of information has been distorted -- from Mexico's mortality rate to the several hundred New York City children who were categorized as having the H1N1 Swine Flu strain and more.

After conducting viral tests on nose and throat swabs from eight New York students, Health officials concluded that several hundred children had the Swine Flu. Nothing was ever corroborated by laboratory tests. The Flu is a common disease. Yearly numbers of deaths related from the Flu by the WHO every year don't seem to add up either. More on the intentional data manipulation from the WHO can be found in this article from The Centre for Research on Globalization. Widespread incidences of the common flu appear to be being utilized by the WHO to generate data justifying the Swine Flu pandemic.

By manipulating data and creating a false pandemic, the WHO lays the groundwork for the U.S. to institute Martial Law. Creating a crisis when there is no crisis has been a favorite trick of the U.S. government for years. Legislation that began during the Clinton administration along with the illegal, unconstitutional 'legislation' created by Congress during the Bush administration has opened the door for the government to illegally impose Martial Law. More on Martial Law and the militarization of public health can be found in this article from The Centre for Research on Globalization.

12,000 Children to be Used as Guinea Pigs in 'Fast-Track Studies' As previously noted, the Swine Flu vaccine could in all probability, kill a lot more people than the Swine Flu itself. Around 12,000 U.S. children will reportedly be used as guinea pigs for an experimental Swine Flu vaccine containing squalene, a deadly ingredient that has been linked to cases of Gulf War Syndrome and other deadly, debilitating diseases.

12,000 children nationwide will participate in 'fast-tracked studies' to test the side-effects of the vaccine beginning next month. As mentioned in a previous article, side-effects from these vaccines could take years to develop. 'Fast-tracking studies' will serve no valid purpose other than misinforming the public.

Despite the fact that squalene caused devastating autoimmune diseases and deaths for many Gulf War veterans from the U.S., the UK and Australia, squalene is being used in some of the Swine Flu vaccines. More information on the studies that have shown squalene to be harmful is available in this article from InfoWars.com. Ironically, the potentially lethal vaccines being produced will have the least effect on those most at risk from Swine Flu -- children, the elderly and people with underlying health problems. More on the the problems from the Swine Flu vaccines can be found in this article from The American Chronicle, from David Icke and from YouTube.

There are many red flags that have been raised due to the illicit actions of the WHO in creating a false Swine Flu pandemic. Steps need to be taken to stop the mass vaccinations by taking legal actions to block the distributions and/or 'laws' that allow the government to force people to take the deadly vaccinations. Every country needs to conduct investigations into the alleged Swine Flu outbreak and everything that Burgermeister has reported on and it needs to be recognized for what it is.

They are asking for a $10 Million ransom. Otherwise, they are going to douse them with gasoline and set them on fire. We are going from car to car, taking up a collection.'

Lie Clocks

A man died and went to heaven. As he stood in front of St. Peter at the Pearly Gates, he saw a huge wall of clocks behind him.

He asked, 'What are all those clocks?'

St. Peter answered, 'Those are Lie-Clocks. Everyone on Earth has a Lie-Clock.

Every time you lie the hands on your clock will move.' 'Oh,' said the man, 'whose clock is that?'

'That's Mother Teresa's. The hands have never moved, indicating that she never told a lie.'

'Incredible,' said the man. 'And whose clock is that one?' St. Peter responded, 'That's Abraham Lincoln's clock. The hands have moved twice, telling us that Abe told only two lies in his entire life.'

'Where's President OBama's clock?' asked the man.

Obama's clock is in Jesus' office. He's using it as a ceiling fan.

The Perfect Solution to Senior Health Care

While discussing the upcoming Universal Health Care Program with my friend the other day, I think we have found the solution. I am sure you have heard the ideas that if you're a senior you need to suck it up and give up the idea that you need any health care. A new hip? Unheard of. We simply can't afford to take care of you anymore. You don't need any medications for your high blood pressure, diabetes, heart problems, etc. Let's take care of the young people. After all, they will be ruling the world very soon.

So here is the solution. When you turn 70, you get a gun and 4 bullets. You are allowed to shoot 2 senators and 2 representatives. Of course, you will be sent to prison where you will get 3 meals a day, a roof over your head and all the health care you need!!! New teeth, great!!! Need glasses, no problem.. New hip, knee, kidney, lung, heart? Well bring it on. And who will be paying for all of this. The same government that just told you that you are too old for health care. And, since you are a prisoner, you don't have to pay any income tax.

I really think we have a Perfect Solution!!!

POLSON – From his patrol car, Richard Mack watched the old Datsun station wagon drive right through the stop sign in Provo, Utah.

The car was filled with rambunctious youngsters and one harried mother who, when she saw what she had done, and the police car parked nearby, threw her arms in the air in frustration and pulled over before Mack could even hit his lights and siren.

“It was a crappy old car, not worth $400,” Mack told about 50 people at the VFW post in Polson on Monday. “The kids were all fighting and crying, the woman didn’t say a word, just handed me her license and registration and stared straight ahead.”

Mack said he had always been a by-the-book cop.

“When I was back in patrol it was all about bringing in the money, bringing in the numbers,” he said. “If you wrote 35 tickets a day you were a good cop.”

As he filled out his latest ticket, Mack said he looked at this woman and imagined she had probably been thinking her day couldn’t get any worse – until he’d been parked where he was, and it did.

“Then I looked at myself,” Mack said. “I asked myself, ‘Am I doing anything to help this family? Am I making this town a better place to live? Am I making it safer? Am I bringing honor to my badge?’”

What a true peace officer would do, Mack decided, was to suggest the woman swing by a nearby school playground and let the kids burn some energy while she regained her focus.

He tore up the ticket. The next day he went to the city clerk and asked to see the oath of office he had taken.

He’d sworn, he discovered, to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States. And he’d sworn that he’d do so against enemies both foreign and domestic.

We know who America’s foreign enemies are, Mack told the crowd.

The domestic enemy he fights today is a federal government he says is bent on taking away people’s rights and freedoms.

And who can fight the massive federal government?

Your local sheriff, he said.

Mack – a former two-term sheriff in Graham County, Ariz., who along with former Ravalli County Sheriff Jay Printz, successfully sued the federal government when the Clinton administration demanded County sheriffs enforce provisions of the Brady Bill gun control law – said his movement seeks to target 1,000 sheriff races across the U.S. in 2010.

“We can have our country back,” Mack said, “but if you think the answer is in Washington, D.C., I’ve got beachfront in Oklahoma for you.”

All law enforcement officers, from the FBI down to the local meter maid, derive their powers from the people, Mack said, but the only law enforcement officers in the land who answer directly to the people are County Sheriffs.

His book, “The County Sheriff, America’s Last Hope” spells out why he believes sheriffs are the last line of defense for the constitutional rights of U.S. citizens.

While many of Mack’s backers are gun owners who believe the country is taking away their Second Amendment rights, Mack said true “constitutional” sheriffs will protect the rights and freedoms of all Americans on any front.

“What would a constitutional sheriff have done in 1959?” Mack asked the crowd.

When the call came in to the Montgomery County, Ala., sheriff’s office that a black woman was refusing to move to the back of the bus – as required by law – the sheriff would have arrived on the scene and talked to Rosa Parks.

“Ma’am, what’s the problem,” a constitutional sheriff would have asked her, Mack said. Told she had taken an empty seat and just wanted to be left alone, the constitutional sheriff would have sat down next to her, ridden with her to her stop – and, once off, for good measure taken her into a whites-only restaurant so she could buy sandwiches for her and her husband.

He’d have then escorted her home, Mack said – asked if her husband was armed and could defend his family if anyone upset by what had happened came around and threatened them – and ordered extra patrols of the house.

“Remember, segregation wasn’t a tradition, it was the law of the land,” Mack said. “Rosa Parks taught us what you do with stupid laws.”

Mack said the Constitution gives the federal government the authority to police exactly four areas: treason, piracy, treaty violations and counterfeiting.

“The other 5,000 they’ve stolen and usurped from state and local authorities,” he said. “The very people who have promised us they will protect and defend the Constitution are the ones who are destroying it.”

In his 49-page book, Mack quotes Founding Fathers who warned that a centralized power in government would lead to one, in Thomas Jefferson’s words, “as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated.”

Mack said the day he pulled over the car filled with fighting children and the exasperated mother launched him in a new direction – and the day he filed his lawsuit over the Brady Bill gave him a national platform for what he calls a “revolution.”

“I decided that day (he pulled the woman over) I was nothing but a liar and a hypocrite,” he said. It almost drove him from law enforcement, he added, “until I realized I don’t have to quit my job, I just have to quit being a liar and a hypocrite.”

He remained in law enforcement for many more years, and believes all those who take an oath just like the ones he did in Utah and Arizona can make a difference.

“Sheriff,” he writes in his book, “you are the sworn protector. You cannot shrink from that duty merely because the violator comes to town with a three-piece suit and a fancy attache case.”

- Limit physicians' control over patient care and medications.
- Give preference to certain identity groups with an Office of Minority Health.
- Force states into programs and add more costs to states.

We are not talking about England with 51 million people or Canada with 33 million people, we are talking about a U.S. health system that would have 304 million customers—the largest health system since the former Soviet Union.

In order to pay for this new government plan, massive tax increases on American citizens and small businesses must take place. This is a sure way to cause far more financial distress and loss of jobs... way to go socialism.

Joint Statement Wayne Lapierre, Executive Vice President, National Rifle Association And Chris W. Cox, Executive Director, National Rifle Association - Institute For Legislative Action On Judge Sonia Sotomayor's Nomination To The United States Supreme Court!

Other than declaring war, neither house of Congress has a more solemn responsibility than the Senate's role in confirming justices to the U.S. Supreme Court. As the Senate considers the nomination of Judge Sonia Sotomayor, Americans have been watching to see whether this nominee - if confirmed - would respect the Second Amendment or side with those who have declared war on the rights of America's 80 million gun owners.

From the outset, the National Rifle

Association has respected the confirmation process and hoped for mainstream answers to bedrock questions. Unfortunately, Judge Sotomayor's judicial record and testimony clearly demonstrate a hostile view of the Second Amendment and the fundamental right of self-defense guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution.

It is only by ignoring history that any judge can say that the Second Amendment is not a fundamental right and does not apply to the states. The one part of the Bill of Rights that Congress clearly intended to apply to all Americans in passing the Fourteenth Amendment was the Second Amendment. History and congressional debate are clear on this point.

Yet Judge Sotomayor seems to believe that the Second Amendment is limited only to the residents of federal enclaves such as Washington, D.C. and does not protect all Americans living in every corner of this nation. In her Maloney opinion and during the confirmation hearings, she deliberately misread Supreme Court precedent to support her incorrect view.

In last year's historic Heller decision, the Supreme Court ruled that the Second Amendment guarantees the individual's right to own firearms and recognizes the inherent right of self-defense. In addition, the Court required lower courts to apply the Twentieth Century cases it has used to incorporate a majority of the Bill of Rights to the States. Yet in her Maloney opinion, Judge Sotomayor dismissed that requirement, mistakenly relying instead on Nineteenth Century jurisprudence to hold that the Second Amendment does not apply to the States.

This nation was founded on a set of fundamental freedoms. Our Constitution does not give us those freedoms - it guarantees and protects them. The right to defend ourselves and our loved ones is one of those. The individual right to keep and bear arms is another. These truths are what define us as Americans. Yet, Judge Sotomayor takes an opposite view, contrary to the views of our Founding Fathers, the Supreme Court, and the vast majority of the American people.

We believe any individual who does not agree that the Second Amendment guarantees a fundamental right and who does not respect our God-given right of self-defense should not serve on any court, much less the highest court in the land. Therefore, the National Rifle Association of America opposes the confirmation of Judge Sonia Sotomayor to the position of Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Czar Crazy

We have more czars created in the last 6 months than the total of American Presidents in the history of America. These “Czars” have no Congressional oversight, were not created by Congress and only answer to the President of the United States. Can any one point to where this is remotely Constitutional?

Do we not see the parallel with the previous USSR? Does this not raise any red flags within the liberal media, and public? Do these Czars make them feel safer and secure.

Can The 10th Amendment Protect Us from ObamaCare?

Down here in Texas, Gov. Rick Perry says he'll "consider invoking" the 10th Amendment to keep ObamaCare out of the state if it passes the House and Senate. This is the second time in four months he's made a pledge to defend state's rights: In April 2009, he broached the subject of secession while speaking against unchecked federal spending at a “Tea Party” in Austin, Texas.

all powers not explicitly given to the federal government or explicitly banned from the states, belong rightly to the states, “or to the people.” Our Founders intended this amendment to serve as a firewall between federal and state governments.

Every American juror has a Constitutional right to acquit all defendants of consensual crimes based on nothing more than a disagreement with the law, no matter the evidence - despite the judge's false instructions to the contrary. There is no legal obligation to vote "guilty" to arrive at a unanimous verdict, but there are many good reasons to vote not guilty. So do your patriotic duty and preserve individual liberty at the same time by getting on a jury, standing your ground against intimidating judges and misinformed/unthinking jurors, fulfilling the jury's original purpose (to counteract big abusive government), and stop convicting non-violent people of non-crimes. This message was recently emailed to the Free Press, so we tried to verify or otherwise check to see if it is true, but have found no evidence that it is untrue, so we publish it here because it speaks the truth. This is what people across the country are doing, albeit not by any means a majority. People acting together to embrace the truth and facts, and take back their own authority and freedoms.

Are you Prepared?

When the storm finally hits (and it will), those of you who supported the Obama administration will be affected as well. It won't just be us gun owners or Fair Taxers, or Pro-Lifers that get hit. You'll be right there next to us. You see, you all thought the Conservatives were nut cases. You know, all of us who believe in God, small government, the Second Amendment, etc. And you thought you could just go back to sleep after the election was over. In your world, America will continue as before. You'll still have the same rights, the same nice house, the same big screen television – it's all good.

After all, your high school football team won and the other team lost – go team! Even if you have bothered to look up from the daily grind since Nov 4th, you dismissed everything that has occurred as “politics as usual” – “the same old stuff.” In the end, it'll all be OK won't it? Not this time.

There are a growing number of citizens in the US that are ready to fight to shut down the government's grab of personal freedom, it's blatant abuse of the constitution, and it's attempt to replace the American way of life with socialism. You have to listen carefully to hear them, but they are there. I won't start that fight, but when it goes down I will join it.

As for you, why... you'll be shocked because you didn't see it coming. And eventually you'll be saddened when you see that we have truly lost the way of life with which you grew up. You'll be saddened that your children and grandchildren live in a socialist, government-controlled gulag where their every movement from cradle to grave is tracked by the government. But most of all, you'll be saddened by the death of friends and relatives who are brave enough to fight and die for something they believe in.

You know, McCain wasn't much of a candidate. I'll give you that. He was the lesser of two evils for most of us. I don't blame you for not voting for him since, at the time, you didn't know what we all know now. But at least John McCain was an American. He was a supporter of the American way of life and he understood that you can't negotiate with terrorists. He understood and appreciated the sacrifice made by my father and other members of the Greatest Generation.

Mark my words friends. All across America groups are forming. They are forming out of anger and out of desperation at the thought of losing America. They're not militia groups, terrorists as the Department of Homeland security would have you believe; they are Americans, loyal to the constitution. They are mothers and fathers and grandparents.

They belong to groups like the Minutemen Civil Defense Corps, the Patriotic Resistance, the Constitution Party, the Young Conservatives, the 9/12 Project, and Grassfire. Right now they are fragmented, each focused on their own cause. But sometime in the next two years, our government is going to do something really stupid and these groups will come together. Watch for it, wait for it...get ready. It will happen.

When that event happens, whatever “it” is, our great country is going to plunge into chaos for a while. I pray to God that we make it through that time and emerge a stronger, smarter country.

dust eventually. Notice it tells us... “till YOU return to the ground.” Death will bring us BACK to dust, until the resurrection.

Ecclesiastes 3:19 “For that which happens to the sons of men, happens to beasts; even one thing happens to them: as the one dies, so dies the other; yes, they have all one breath; so that a man has no preeminence above a beast. :20 All go to one place: all are from the dust, and all return to dust.” NKJV.

WOW! Could it be any clearer? Here, God’s word tells us of the fact that as an animal dies, and decomposes, so, too, do humans. There is no “preeminence” in what happens to humans as compared to what happens to animals. BOTH decompose to dust.

Let’s look further. Where did the deception of the immortal soul begin?

Gen 3:4, “And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die.” NKJV.

Satan lies to them in the beginning telling them that they won't die if they sin... or go their own way and make their own decisions, disregarding God’s word. Simply put, God told them they would die, and Satan told them they wouldn’t.

Whom should we believe? If we accept the "immortal soul" theory, then Satan is exactly right and spoke the truth... called God a liar, because an immortal soul CANNOT die, making God’s word a lie that people would die.

What else does the Bible say about “soul?”

Lev 17:12 “Therefore I said to the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourns among you eat blood.”NKJV.

Isa 29:8 “It shall even be as when a hungry man dreams, And look - he eats; But he awakes, and his soul is still empty; Or as when a thirsty man dreams, And look - he drinks; But he awakes, and indeed he is faint, And his soul still craves.” NKJV.

How can souls, if they are something more than physical flesh, and are “immortal,” eat, drink or crave anything?

Josh 10:28 “And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did to the king of Jericho.” NKJV.

Destroyed all the “souls.” However, what did Christ tell us about “destroying” souls?

Matt 10:28 “And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” NKJV.

Some will be very quick to use this lone scripture to “prove” that there is a “conscious” difference between body and soul. If we take this scripture as is, without context, and without all other scriptures in the Bible, then we are not “rightly dividing” God’s word.

The lesson Christ was teaching in this statement was NOT a doctrinal lesson. If it was, then it is one that would be in obvious conflict with so many of the other scriptures we’ve already discussed if we use this scripture alone. Christ’s point was that the fear of life being removed did NOT mean life was unable to be returned to a person.

Remember, the scripture... “man became a ‘LIVING’ soul?” The difference is that it is LIFE that makes anything a soul... even an animal. At death, (life ending) it is just a body, just as a dead cow is just a hunk of meat..

His lesson was simply telling people that only God could “destroy” the life, completely... that is, “destroy,” meaning eternal death, not eternal life suffering forever... eliminating life forever, never to be resurrected.

The wages of sin is death, and those who do not come under the sacrifice paid by the God family through offering up the ONLY other being in that family throughout eternity in the past, Jesus Christ, the Word. (Future article will be on the fallacy of the Holy Spirit being a “person”).

Of course, many are likely already thinking about Luke 23:42 where the two thieves who were crucified with Jesus were speaking to each other and to Christ... “Then he said to Jesus, ‘Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom.’ 43 “And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise." NKJV.

The comma after “I say to you today” is incorrect. Here, once again, we have a punctuation error that misleads in what is actually being stated. Let’s look at it with the punctuation changed to correctly state the truth:

42 “Then he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom." 43 And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly I say to you today, you will be with Me in Paradise."

Notice Christ wasn’t telling the thief that he would be in Paradise “today,” but that Christ was telling the thief “today...” at that moment, that this thief would be in the kingdom at some time in the future.

Question: Where was Christ that day after He died? In the grave, for three days and three nights, so if Christ stated that “today” they both would be in “paradise,” then Christ was wrong. Christ was dead, and in the grave, and didn’t rise to be accepted by the Father as the ultimate sin offering until after He was resurrected to life 3 days later.

On top of that, notice Christ has NOT come into His Kingdom... the kingdom of God has not arrived because Christ has not returned.

Of course, there will be many arguments to this position... scriptures thrown out, statements made taking other lone scriptures out of context and not putting all the pieces of the puzzle scattered throughout the Bible together properly to arrive at the true image God and Christ are giving us.

The plan our Creator and His son have in store for humanity far surpasses any science fiction man could dream up. The Family of “God” is being fashioned through humankind. Much of our traditional beliefs of what “God” is doing pales to insignificance when compared to the true plan of God and the destiny of humankind.

Next time, we will focus on the issue of the “trinity” and the truth of who and what “God” really is.

States told to prepare for worst-case swine flu scenario.

<http://www.cnn.com/2009/HEALTH/07/09/obama.swine.flu/index.html> (mostly propaganda).

Health and Human Services Secretary Kathleen Sebelius told government leaders at a swine flu preparedness summit Thursday that a vaccine to fight the H1N1 virus should be ready for distribution in mid-October. But Sebelius also advised 500 government, health and education leaders to plan for the worst-case scenario of the virus reappearing with renewed strength this fall. "What we need to assume is that it will come back in a much more severe form," she said at the conference at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, outside Washington.

Commonly called swine flu, the virus is also known as influenza A(H1N1). The World Health Organization declared the virus a global pandemic last month.

Sebelius said that extensive planning to combat the spread of the virus always could be scaled back later but that officials could not delay starting work on those preparations.

"We can step back from our planning. What we can't do is wait until October," she said. The fight against H1N1 will be federally funded, the secretary said. She said the government will announce $350 million in preparedness grants on Friday, with $260 million for state health departments and $90 million for hospitals preparing for a possible surge of patients.

Editor’s note: Problem here... they claimed to have had the first flu “vaccination” months ago... but now they speculate that the flu will come back in a “much more severe form.” Of course, their first release of this flu was impotent... didn’t do what they wanted...but now they are releasing a more weaponized form.

However, if they think it may “come back in a much more severe form,” how do they already have the vaccine, since it takes 3-6 months to develop one once the virus is isolated after it has “mutated?” Of course, they already KNOW what they are delivering, and will conveniently have the vaccine... to make the bucks, and kill people at the same time. Don’t believe them!
