THE DEATH OF LIBERTY: THE FINAL SCENE UNFOLDS – By Greg Evensen

When police investigators begin amassing evidence at a crime scene, the bits and pieces of the puzzle begin to take shape. Usually, with several trained men and women working together to come up with an answer, the intent and actions of the perpetrator are almost always revealed.

Since my core training and experience over many years was as a state level enforcement officer, I have worked crime scenes that were large, complex and conflicting. With enough time, effort and resolve, we too, were able to bring the bad guys to account.

You certainly do not have to be a trained state trooper—or any other level police agent—to use common sense, logic and knowledge, to assess the crime scene that has become the socialist states of amerika.

I continue to be at a loss to explain how it is that so many tens of millions of amerikans simply do not see the utter destruction of their former republic by socialists, one worlders, deviates, liars and thieves. The men in black have been roving the country flashing their memory erasers around the clock. Let's take a check on how things are really going.

I implore those officers of the law who are in grave doubt about the legitimate authenticity of their superiors in any agency, to simply read the constitution, re-read their oath of office, seek out retired officers for guidance, and remember this very carefully—to brutalize citizens in the pursuit of order, is a guaranteed recipe for resistance.

Our nation's police forces prior to the criminal thug Richard Nixon were centered on community policing. MOST of their time was spent on looking for, identifying, and monitoring criminals, and responding to unusual or dangerous events that were beyond the control of ordinary folks. We appreciated those officers and were proud to say, "he is OUR Cop!" We knew that we could talk to him, kid him, see him play adult softball, and sit across from him in church. We watched him shed tears when one of our kids didn't make it home after a night of drinking and driving. We remembered him at Christmas, because he didn't make much you know.

I said "him" because back then, there were no women in the ranks.

As government began its sickening expansion, policing became a meaner and nastier job. It was made that way by badge wearing thugs who didn't hesitate to do whatever they were told by the S.A.C. (Special Agent in Charge) of the FBI, BATF(E), US Marshal's Office right down to armed poultry inspectors—yes they have them and they are really tough on criminal chickens. The "us against them" mentality, and the "mission essential" attitude justified SWAT teams, "dynamic entries," and later use of MACE, TASERS, FLASHBANG GRENADES and "routine" use of SUBMACHINE guns. All in the name of "taking down" the accused—no matter the charge. I abhor such police tactics and was an officer that served my own warrants, rarely with one other officer at the back door.

This nation is racing at interceptor speed toward a day of reckoning that has never been dreamed of.

Now we have become eaves-dropping, roadblock setting, door crashing, face grinding, arm breaking, pursuit driven bastards that have sold their asses to the government masters hell bent on establishing the TRUE reincarnation of the dreaded SS. That is NO overstatement. Note: There are significant numbers of officers at all levels that simply detest the forced training at FEMA centers, the requirements to stop Patriots and others simply because they "look" dangerous, and are exercising free speech statements on their vehicles. By whose ultimate authority does this take place? By whose ultimate judgment is it that it is necessary to harass INNOCENT drivers and families? The public sees this Gestapo mentality as far more of a danger than any stickers they put on their vehicles? Where are all these "faithful" enforcers of the law when it comes to confronting the unlawful, unconstitutional, unjustifiable, and unmerciful rotten bunch of usurpers, communists, atheists, deviated, immoral scungebuckets that are walking the halls of Congress, the White House, and the Federal Courts? How is it that the "get 'em at any cost" morons at Homeland Security have created an environment in amerika that is an unwarranted intrusion of power in 186 other nations?

And all of this is done in the name of safety and security. I guess that a majority of ignorant buffoons really do believe that Barack Sotero is the Messiah and he does hold the keys to socialist paradise in his hands.

So, once again, I implore those officers of the law who are in grave doubt about the legitimate authenticity of their superiors in any agency, to H1N1 Flu Vaccine: Mercury and Live Virus!

Kurt Nimmo - Infowars.com

An Infowars reader has sent a vaccine insert (See Page 16) that proves Fluzone contains thimerosal, the deadly antiseptic and antifungal agent. "Thimerosal is a very effective preservative that has been used since the 1930s to prevent contamination in some multi-dose vials of vaccines," according to the Centers for Disease Control.

"In 1977, a Russian study found that adults exposed to ethylmercury, the form of mercury in thimerosal, suffered brain damage years later," writes Dawn Prate for Natural News. "Studies on thimerosal poisoning also describe tubular necrosis and nervous system injury, including obtundation, coma and death. As a result of these findings, Russia banned thimerosal from children's vaccines in 1980. Denmark, Austria, Japan, Great Britain and all the Scandinavian countries have also banned the preservative."

According to a number of researchers, thimerosal is responsible for a dramatic increase in autism and other neurological disorders. There is also a link between thimerosal and speech delays, attention-deficit disorder, hyperactivity and autism. The Institute of Medicine conducted a study on thimerosal and concluded that the link between thimerosal and neurodevelopmental disorders was biologically plausible and called for the removal of thimerosal to "reduce mercury exposure of infants and children as much as possible."

"Fluzone vaccine is indicated for active immunization in people 6 months of

EDITORIAL: WHERE IS YOUR LINE IN THE SAND?

Jeff Maehr
Publisher & Editor

Wow... what a brisk three weeks it has been. The Tea Party Express that traveled across country was a huge success in every area they stopped, including DC. Thousands in many of the stops turned out to support the concept of freedom, truth and law, and to end the idiocy taking place in the District of Confusion (did I say that out loud?) in Washington.

Washington had hundreds of thousands at least, on Saturday, September 12, contrary to those who simply cannot stomach truth and facts, and stated there were only 60,000 to 70,000... they MUST fabricate their little dilusional world of Alice in Wonderland in order to perpetuate the scam, the lies, the fraud. They can't believe that so many thinking Americans would actually make a stand for freedom and limited government.

This was a wake up call to Washington, and to the millions of Americans who are still in denial of reality and what is happening to their country. This whole thing is a process... of how many can wake up first before those forces seeking to destroy our country and freedoms win.

So, I have to ask you... where is you line in the sand? What will it take to shake you out of complacency... sleep... apathy?

What are you willing to tolerate before you can't take any more? Will it be the forced vaccinations against your will, or against your neighbor's will, likely damaging your health for life? Will it be socialistic/corporate/Federal control of all our businesses? How about the denied health care for your elderly parents who aren't contributing to society in any meaningful way according to those who crunch the numbers, or your young child who hasn't been proven as an asset as yet to society?

How about gun confiscation, just like dozens of other countries... is that acceptable to you, even though history clearly shows that any country who gives up their guns is soon defeated from within?

How about controlling what food you eat, the quality, the quantity... genetically modified foods... created for population control?

How hardened, how blind, how sick have we become to be willing to allow such behavior around us... TO us? Is the death of 50 million babies acceptable to a civilized race? Are you willing to fund voluntary or forced abortion?

Are we being systematically hardened... seared... brainwashed into accepting our chains and slavery? Anyone who believes this only applies to "them," is deceiving themselves. 99% of humanity is on a list... the expendable list... the useless eaters, and those who are just part of 'too many.' Too bad for you... you aren't the rich, the bankers, the government, the elite... those self-chosen, selfish, sick, perverted, greedy, corrupt... those who have willingly sold themselves to a seed that does nothing but steal, kill and destroy.

OK... so this is "so far out there..." let's get more basic and real, right? Let's first ignore world history, ok? Then we throw in ignorance of our own history, and where our founding fathers came from. We should add to the pot, the facts of dumbing down our schools (government subsidized), the control of the elections through voter fraud, and ACORN stooges and government collusion, the contamination of our food and water supplies through chemicals mounting to 100,000 plus, drugging our kids, and ourselves... but this can't "really" be a factor in the demise of our health, our logic, our awareness... our interest in defending our constitution... could it?

Naaaaahhhh... that is conspiracy stuff... not real... can't have any impact on anything in our "real" world. Evil seems to be growing worse... from local county corruption and thug mentality... gross violations of law and the Constitution on a daily basis... to State and Federal government's all colluding to steal.

Here's an idea... all those who voted for Obama, and believe the "Birthers" argument is "racists" or whatever else can be thrown up... send him a request to simply provide his records on birth, and education, etc., and "prove" he's eligible to be president and shut the mouths of all those demanding him to prove it. How hard is that for those who seek the truth and aren't traitors to the law od the land? It is as easy as A, B, C... so, we'll expect everyone who doesn't believe the eligibility charge, (Despite the court date scheduled on this issue) to ask YOUR President to answer this one simple question. We'll print his answer in the next issue!

age and older against influenza disease caused by influenza virus subtypes A and type B contained in the seasonal influenza vaccine," reports Medical News Today. "Fluzone vaccine is the only vaccine licensed in the United States for children as young as 6 months of age through adults."

In other words, if you are buying into the government and corporate media hype about the flu and permit your children to get a seasonal vaccine, they are getting thimerosal. "Sanofi Pasteur expects to supply over 50 million doses of Fluzone vaccine to the U.S. for the 2009-2010 season." Sanofi Pasteur produces approximately 40 percent of the influenza vaccines distributed worldwide, and in the U.S. Fluzone vaccine accounts for more than 45 percent of the influenza vaccines distributed each year. Finally, the insert indicates Fluzone contains the H1N1 virus.

Attention Citizens of America:

For those who take our times and our situation seriously, we call upon everyone to reach out to like-minded people in your area and begin NOW to prepare for the worst, and work to make it the best. History Unfolding - By David Kaiser

I am a student of history. Professionally, I have written 15 books on history that have been published in six languages, and I have studied history all my life. I have come to think there is something monumentally large afoot, and I do not believe it is simply a banking crisis, or a mortgage crisis, or a credit crisis. Yes these exist, but they are merely single facets on a very large gemstone that is only now coming into a sharper focus.

Something of historic proportions is happening. I can sense it because I know how it feels, smells, what it looks like, and how people react to it.. Yes, a perfect storm may be brewing, but there is something happening within our country that has been evolving for about ten to fifteen years. The pace has dramatically quickened in the past two.

We demand and then codify into law the requirement that our banks make massive loans to people we know they can never pay back? Why? We learned just days ago that the Federal Reserve, which has little or no real oversight by anyone, has "loaned" two trillion dollars (that is $2,000,000,000,000) over the past few months, but will not tell us to whom or why or disclose the terms. That is our money, yours and mine. And that is three times the $700 billion we all argued about so strenuously just this past September. Who has this money? Why do they have it? Why are the terms unavailable to us? Who asked for it? Who authorized it? I thought this was a government of "we the people," who loaned our powers to our elected leaders, apparently not.

We have spent two or more decades intentionally de-industrializing our economy. Why? We have intentionally dumbed down our schools, ignored our history, and no longer teach our founding documents, why we are exceptional, and why we are worth preserving. Students by and large cannot write, think critically, read, or articulate. Parents are not revolting, teachers are not picketing, school boards continue to back mediocrity.

Why?

We have now established the precedent of protesting every close election (violently in California over a proposition that is so controversial that it simply wants marriage to remain defined as between one man and one woman. Did you ever think such a thing possible just a decade ago?) We have corrupted our sacred political process by allowing unelected judges to write laws that radically change our way of life, and then mainstream Marxist groups like ACORN and others to turn our voting system into a banana republic. To what purpose?

Now our mortgage industry is collapsing, housing prices are in free fall, major industries are failing, our banking system is on the verge of collapse, social security is nearly bankrupt, as is Medicare and our entire government. Our education system is worse than a joke (I teach college and I know precisely what I am talking about) - the list is staggering in its length, breadth, and depth.. It is potentially 1929 x ten... And we are at war with an enemy we cannot even name for fear of offending people of the same religion, who, in turn, cannot wait to slit the throats of your children if they have the opportunity to do so.

And finally, we have elected a man that no one really knows anything about, who has never run so much as a Dairy Queen, let alone a town as big as Wasilla, Alaska. All of his associations and alliances are with real radicals in their chosen fields of employment, and everything we learn about him, drip by drip, is unsettling if not downright scary (Surely you have heard him speak about his idea to create and fund a mandatory civilian defense force stronger than our military for use inside our borders? No? Oh, of course. The media would never play that for you over and over and then demand he answer it. Sarah Palin's pregnant daughter and $150,000 wardrobe are more important.)

Mr. Obama's winning platform can be boiled down to one word: Change. Why? I have never been so afraid for my country and for my children as I am now. This man campaigned on bringing people together, something he has never, ever done in his professional life. In my assessment, Obama will divide us along philosophical lines, push us apart, and then try to realign the pieces into a new and different power structure.

Change is indeed coming. And when it comes, you will never see the same nation again.

And that is only the beginning. As a serious student of history, I thought I would never come to experience what the ordinary, moral German must have felt in the mid-1930s In those times, the "savior" was a former smooth-talking rabble-rouser from the streets, about whom the average German knew next to nothing. What they should have known was that he was associated with groups that shouted, shoved, and pushed around people with whom they disagreed; he edged his way onto the political stage through great oratory. Conservative "losers" read it right now.

Slowly, but surely he seized the controls of government power, person by person, department by department, bureaucracy by bureaucracy.

And there were the promises. Economic times were tough, people were losing jobs, and he was a great speaker. And he smiled and frowned and waved a lot. And people, even newspapers, were afraid to speak out for fear that his "brown shirts" would bully and beat them into submission. Which they did - regularly. And then, he was duly elected to office, while a full-throttled economic crisis bloomed at hand - the Great Depression.

Slowly, but surely he seized the controls of government power, person by person, department by department, bureaucracy by bureaucracy. The children of German citizens were at first, encouraged to join a Youth Movement in his name where they were taught exactly what to think. Later, they were required to do so. No Jews of course, How did he get people on his side? He did it by promising jobs to the jobless, money to the money-less, and rewards for the military-industrial complex. He did it by indoctrinating the children, advocating gun control, health care for all, better wages, better jobs, and promising to re-instill pride once again in the country, across Europe, and across the world. He did it with a compliant media - did you know that? And he did this all in the name of justice and change. And the people surely got what they voted for.

If you think I am exaggerating, look it up. It's all there in the history books. So read your history books. Many people of conscience objected in 1933 and were shouted down, called names, laughed at, and ridiculed. When Winston Churchill pointed out the obvious in the late 1930s while seated in the House of Lords in England (he was not yet Prime Minister), he was booed into his seat and called a crazy troublemaker. He was right, though. And the world came to regret that he was not listened to.

Do not forget that Germany was the most educated, the most cultured country in Europe. It was full of music, art, museums, hospitals, laboratories, and universities. And yet, in less than six years (a shorter time

Modern Country Supply is Bringin' Back the Goodness of the Past.

Finally after months of planning and staging, Modern Country Supply is NOW OPEN!! Over 600 different items stock the shelves ranging from Mesquite flour in the Gluten Free section, to the Israeli Couscous in the Grain section, to rare Saffron imported from Iran in the Exotic Spices. More than 35 different kinds of beans are displayed along side a variety of 17 different rice products.

The most popular question that I'm asked from our interested customers (besides where I'm from) is 'Where did you find all this neat stuff?' Researching those hard to find items is continually taking place because of our vision of basic raw nutritional ingredients. If an item is not on our shelves that our customers are looking for, we will exhaust every avenue to find it primarily in bulk. There are two reasons we order our goods in bulk form. First we want our valued customers to have a variety of sizes to choose from and second, we want to offer a decent price due to our financial woes from the uncertain economy that has relentlessly impacted every person in this country. This crisis has naturally brought about an element of conservation which we are catering to in the lines of food storage that includes a large display of canning products and dry food storage containers for those who are anxious to have a safety net.

We are excited about our beautiful presentation kitchen that's all prepared for cooking classes and demonstrations. Give us a call for the class schedule and we would be happy to email it to you.

The wonderful scent of fresh baked bread fills the store's atmosphere everyday. All the items from the bakery are prepared with 100% natural ingredients especially the sweeteners. The main sweetener used is local raw honey. The whole wheat flour is ground fresh everyday to enhance the nutrition, flavor and texture. The baking ingredients section is well stocked with all the necessities from aluminum free baking powder to vital wheat gluten.

Shocker! Judge orders trial on eligibility issue - Arguments planned Jan. 11 for major Obama challenge - By Jerome R. Corsi © 2009 WorldNetDaily.

A California judge today tentatively scheduled a trial for Jan. 26, 2010, for a case that challenges Barack Obama's eligibility to be president based on questions over his qualifications under the requirements of the U.S. Constitution.

If the case actually goes to arguments before U.S. District Judge David Carter, it will be the first time the merits of the dispute have been argued in open court, according to one of the attorneys working on the issue.

In a highly anticipated hearing today before Carter, several motions were heard, including a resolution to long-standing questions about whether attorney Orly Taitz properly served notice on the defendants, which she had.

In a second ruling, Carter ordered that attorney Gary Kreep of the United States Justice Foundation can be added to the case to represent plaintiffs Wiley Drake and Markham Robinson, who had been removed by an earlier court order. Drake, the vice presidential candidate for the American Independent Party, and Robinson, the party's chairman, also were restored to the case.

Want to know for certain where Obama was born? Demand the truth by joining the petition campaign to make President Obama reveal his long-form, hospital-generated birth certificate!

But the judge did not immediately rule on Taitz' motion to be granted discovery – that is the right to see the president's still-concealed records. Nor did Carter rule immediately on a motion to dismiss the case, submitted by the U.S. government, following discussion over Taitz' challenge to the work of a magistrate in the case.

The judge did comment that if there are legitimate constitutional questions regarding Obama's eligibility, they need to be addressed and resolved.

Carter ordered a hearing Oct. 5 on the motion to dismiss and ordered arguments submitted on the issue of discovery. If the case survives that challenge, a pretrial hearing has been scheduled for Jan. 11 and the trial for two weeks later. The case would be the first time, according to Kreep, that the actual merits of the dispute will have been heard in open court. A multitude of such disputes have been rejected out of hand by various state and federal courts. Even the U.S. Supreme Court repeatedly has rejected See Trial, P. 5

Some 50 years after United States authorities began adding fluoride to public water supplies to reduce cavities in children's teeth, recently discovered declassified government documents are shedding new light on the roots of that still-controversial public health measure, revealing a surprising connection between the use of fluoride and the dawning of the nuclear age. Today, two-thirds of US public drinking water is fluoridated. Many municipalities still resist the practice, disbelieving the government's assurances of safety.

Since the days of World War II when the US prevailed by building the world's first atomic bomb, the nation's public health leaders have maintained that low doses of fluoride are safe for people and good for children's teeth. That safety verdict should now be re-examined in the light of hundreds of once-secret WWII-era documents obtained by these reporters [authors Griffiths and Bryson], including declassified papers of the Manhattan Project-the ultra-secret US military program that produced the atomic bomb.

Fluoride was the key chemical in atomic bomb production, according to the documents. Massive quantities-millions of tons-were essential for the manufacture of bomb-grade uranium and plutonium for nuclear weapons throughout the Cold War. One of the most toxic chemicals known, fluoride emerged as the leading chemical health hazard of the US atomic bomb program, both for workers and for nearby communities, the documents reveal.

Much of the original proof that fluoride is safe for humans in low doses was generated by A-bomb program scientists who had been secretly ordered to provide "evidence useful in litigation" against defense contractors for fluoride injury to citizens. The first lawsuits against the American A-bomb program were not over radiation, but over fluoride damage, the documents show.

Human studies were required. Bomb program researchers played a leading role in the design and implementation of the most extensive US study of the health effects of fluoridating public drinking water, conducted in Newburgh, New York, from 1945 to 1955. Then, in a classified operation code-named "Program F", they secretly gathered and analyzed blood and tissue samples from Newburgh citizens with the cooperation of New York State Health Department personnel.

The original, secret version (obtained by these reporters) of a study published by Program F scientists in the August 1948 Journal of the American Dental Association¹ shows that evidence of adverse health effects from fluoride was censored by the US Atomic Energy Commission (AEC)-considered the most powerful of Cold War agencies-for reasons of "national security".

The bomb program's fluoride safety studies were conducted at the University of Rochester-site of one of the most notorious human radiation experiments of the Cold War, in which unsuspecting hospital patients were injected with toxic doses of radioactive plutonium. The fluoride studies were conducted with the same ethical mindset, in which "national security" was paramount.

urgent appeals to hear the evidence.

The suit alleges Obama is actually a citizen of Indonesia and "possibly still citizen of Kenya, usurping the position of the president of the United States of America and the commander-in-chief."

WND has reported on dozens of legal challenges to Obama's status as a "natural born citizen." The Constitution, Article 2, Section 1, states, "No Person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President."

Some of the lawsuits question whether he was actually born in Hawaii, as he insists. If he was born out of the country, Obama's American mother, the suits contend, was too young at the time of his birth to confer American citizenship to her son under the law at the time.

Other challenges have focused on Obama's citizenship through his father, a Kenyan subject to the jurisdiction of the United Kingdom at the time of his birth, thus making him a dual citizen. The cases contend the framers of the Constitution excluded dual citizens from qualifying as natural born.

Complicating the situation is Obama's decision to spend sums estimated over $1 million to avoid releasing a state birth certificate that would put to rest the questions.

WND has reported that among the documentation not yet available for Obama includes his kindergarten records, Punahou school records, Occidental College records, Columbia University records, Columbia thesis, Harvard Law School records, Harvard Law Review articles, scholarly articles from the University of Chicago, passport, medical records, files from his years as an Illinois state senator, his Illinois State Bar Association

EVIDENCE OF FLUORIDE'S ADVERSE HEALTH EFFECTS

The US Government's conflict of interest and its motive to prove fluoride safe in the furious debate over water fluoridation since the 1950s has only now been made clear to the general public, let alone to civilian researchers, health professionals and journalists. The declassified documents resonate with a growing body of scientific evidence and a chorus of questions about the health effects of fluoride in the environment.

Human exposure to fluoride has mushroomed since World War II, due not only to fluoridated water and toothpaste but to environmental pollution by major industries, from aluminum to pesticides, where fluoride is a critical industrial chemical as well as a waste by-product.

The impact can be seen literally in the smiles of our children. Large numbers (up to 80 per cent in some cities) of young Americans now have dental fluorosis, the first visible sign of excessive fluoride exposure according to the US National Research Council. (The signs are whitish flecks or spots, particularly on the front teeth, or dark spots or stripes in more severe cases.)

Less known to the public is that fluoride also accumulates in bones. "The teeth are windows to what's happening in the bones," explained Paul Connett, Professor of Chemistry at St Lawrence University, New York, to these reporters. In recent years, pediatric bone specialists have expressed alarm about an increase in stress fractures among young people in the US. Connett and other scientists are concerned that fluoride-linked to bone damage in studies since the 1930s-may be a contributing factor.

The declassified documents add urgency: much of the original 'proof' that low-dose fluoride is safe for children's bones came from US bomb program scientists, according to this investigation.

Now, researchers who have reviewed these declassified documents fear that Cold War national security considerations may have prevented objective scientific evaluation of vital public health questions concerning fluoride.

"Information was buried," concludes Dr Phyllis Mullenix, former head of toxicology at Forsyth Dental Center in Boston and now a critic of fluoridation. Animal studies which Mullenix and co-workers conducted at Forsyth in the early 1990s indicated that fluoride was a powerful central nervous system (CNS) toxin and might adversely affect human brain functioning even at low doses.

(New epidemiological evidence from China adds support, showing a correlation between low-dose fluoride exposure and diminished IQ in children.) Mullenix's results were published in 1995 in a reputable peer-reviewed scientific journal.²

During her investigation, Mullenix was astonished to discover there had been virtually no previous US studies of fluoride's effects on the human brain. Then, her application for a grant to continue her CNS research was turned down by the US National Institutes of Health (NIH), when an NIH panel flatly told her that "fluoride does not have central nervous system effects".

A FEW RAMBLING THOUGHTS ON THE HISTORY OF FREEDOM. By M. L. McPherson

Why do we now have personal freedom? This is more than simply an academic question.

As we look back along the faint tendrils of recorded history, we note the conspicuous absence of one thing — in those thousands of years and throughout those hundreds of “civilizations,” we see mirrored practically every good and bad aspect of modern life. We see war, famine, oppression, strife, and grief. We see literary, engineering, artistic, and scientific marvels. We see advances and setbacks but through it all we see the continuing inevitable overall advancement of knowledge.

What we do not see is the existence of personal freedom for the common folk. Until about 300 years ago, throughout recorded history and Around 1700, for the first time in “civilized” history, the average individual had a means of defeating armor and therefore of defeating the hired and trained mercenaries of the wealthy few. How so, you might ask? The answer: The Affordable Gun.

throughout the world: Individual Freedom, as a feature of everyday human existence for the common man simply did not exist — even in the most “democratic” of those societies only the powerful had the freedom to routinely do as they pleased.

Certainly, one could argue that personal freedom is overrated, and some would seem to want to do so, but that debate does not interests me and choose not to pursue it here. For the purposes of this treatise, I will hold that nothing could be more precious to a human being. Those who do not agree have a different battle to fight.

What seminal event changed the course of history, so that, about 300 years ago, we began to see individuals who were able to claim and to enforce their God-given right to personal freedom? The answer would astound most scholars, if only they would bother to study history in the cold, hard light of fact. That magic potion that engendered Freedom for the masses was made of cold, hard steel.

Around 1700, for the first time in “civilized” history, the average individual had a means of defeating armor and therefore of defeating the hired and trained mercenaries of the wealthy few. How so, you might ask? The answer: The Affordable Gun.

Even a liberal could understand that their intent was to secure an armed citizenry that would keep the government honest.

In that era, the advent of external combustion engines (steam engines) provided the first effective means of ridding mines of water. That detail was crucial to the growing industrial revolution. With the advent of that revolution, the price of guns and ammunition components plummeted.

As a result, for the first time ever, the average person could afford a weapon that, in the hands of the average person, was capable of defeating armor. Of course, then as now, the ruling elite fought tooth and nail to prevent the average subject from owning such a weapon — in that era, the reasons for that legalistic oppression were somewhat more obvious to the average person than are those reasons today; nevertheless, those reasons are identical!

It is a fact that without the affordable gun, freedom for the masses would never have happened. It is equally a fact that as soon as the masses lose that means of preserving their God-given rights, freedom will perish, as has repeatedly been proven throughout this modern world's brief history.

In the past 120 or so years, at least 100,000,000 innocent “citizens” have been disarmed by their own governments and then summarily murdered. Those genocides are a fact of history that the rhetoric of politicians cannot change — political rhetoric brought those disarmaments and genocides!

Those who gnash their teeth, bemoaning the supposed carnage brought about by the “evil gun” continuously ignore the vastly more damaging facets of human nature that are necessarily rampant in any free society. But I shall not argue that point, as I find it an exercise in banality. The point I will argue is the undeniable fact that we have a choice: We can choose to live in freedom and accept that such liberty necessarily must include a certain admixture of evil and bad; else, we can choose to live in a Police State, for there is no enduring intermediate condition.

In this regard I find the following observation to be obvious: “A price exists for freedom. Any society is either willing to pay that price or it is destined to suffer under the inevitable consequences of the alternative — a Police State, or worse!”

Own Worst Enemy

It was only a matter of time before Denton May attacked the 2nd Amendment (Journal Sept. 8th). Liberals have always had a problem with the rights we enjoy but May and Obama and his co-conspirators are working to fix that “problem”. He says...“this (2nd) amendment is marked by ambiguity, it’s language provoking speculation regarding the intent of the framers”. He evidently doesn’t understand the meaning of the words “shall not be infringed”. If he was curious about the intent of the framers, he could simply read the Federalist Papers where they explained in language even a liberal could understand that their intent was to secure an armed citizenry that would keep the government honest. They made it abundantly clear that ...“it is the right of the people to alter (the government) or abolish it” (Federalist Paper 41, James Madison). Further,

Obama Signs Executive Order Barring Release Of His Birth Certificate (infowars.com)

On January 21st, 2009, his very first day in office, Barack Obama implemented and signed into law Executive Order 13489.

For those of you who can't take the time to read it. here is the section that applies:

"Sec. 2

Notice Of Intent To Disclose Presidential Records.

When the Archivist provides notice to the incumbent and former Presidents of his intent to disclose Presidential records pursuant to section 1270.46 of the NARA regulations, the Archivist, using any guidelines provided by the incumbent and former Presidents, shall identify any specific materials, the disclosure of which he believes may raise a substantial question of executive privilege."

Now for all of you who commented on our previous articles that we were no more than right-wing nut jobs, that this thing about Obama's birth certificate was a non-issue, and those of you who tried to shift the focus of the stories, doesn't this strike you as just a little odd?

That the first order of business Obama took care of on day one of his Presidency was to sign off on an Executive Order that states that only the records he chooses to be made public will be released?

This is the subject that was at the absolute top of his agenda? If this isn't proof that Obama is hiding something, I don't know what is.

Editor's Note: See the article on P. 4 regarding the scheduled court hearing on Obama that is finally looking like something sane is going to happen to bring out the facts on what Obama is hiding.

Public Money Funding Left Wing/ Liberal Radio Station Purchases.

ACORN just bought their 8th radio station. This one is on Long Island, NY. It cost $50,000,000.00. Yes, that's 50 Million. As we all know, ACORN is federally funded. Do you think these Czars aren't up to something? It's called limiting free speech and getting rid of talk (truth) radio. When the left can't deal with the truth, they have to hit, punch, cheat, steal, and use public money to attempt to thwart the facts from continuing to go out to America. Pretty sad group of questionably human beings... Do something, or live with the consequences.

He's telling us that he's been contacted by active duty State trooper friends from several states who are all telling him of plans to erect roadblocks at key places along interstate highways to force all cars to go single file up to barricades where you will be given a "choice": be vaccinated on the spot and fitted with a stainless steel wrist bracelet containing an RFID chip with your medical history showing you've received the vaccine, or be put on a bus and taken to a FEMA Quarantine Camp.

If you don't receive the vaccine and RFID bracelet, you will be blocked from entering your place of business, supermarkets, you'll be blocked from flying, police are being set up to be the new SS, and many aren't liking it at all. All should Swine flu jab link to killer nerve disease!

Leaked letter reveals concern of neurologists over 25 deaths in America. A warning that the new swine flu jab is linked to a deadly nerve disease has been sent by the Government to senior neurologists in a confidential letter. The letter from the Health Protection Agency, the official body that oversees public health, has been leaked to The Mail on Sunday, leading to demands to know why the information has not been given to the public before the vaccination of millions of people, including children, begins.

It tells the neurologists that they must be alert for an increase in a brain disorder called Guillain-Barre Syndrome (GBS), which could be triggered by the vaccine. The letter, sent to about 600 neurologists on July 29, is the first sign that there is concern at the highest levels that the vaccine itself could cause serious complications.

US Gvmt. sets up security wing to distance itself from 9/11

The U.S. Government has recently set up a special security wing, part of the NSA, called the "Q" group. with the sole task of distancing Washington from any involvement in the 911 terrorists attacks. Wayne Madson, investigative reporter, claims this group has grown into a disproportionate counter intelligence force mainly targeting journalists, and prosecuting whistleblowing security officials.

The group also works closely with FBI counterintelligence officers, as well as, recently disclosed, local police department intelligence units. 1000 agents and informants (can you say traitors?) are employed by this secretive agency.

Documentation reveals the NSA group keeps records through a system called "First Fruits" which records journalists communications on NSA activities, who they are talking to and about what.

Million or more Rock Washington - Taxpayer March could be biggest Rally ever in Capital. www.wnd.com

WASHINGTON – The capital was rocked (September 12) by a taxpayer march and rally that could be the biggest protest ever – potentially dwarfing the Million Man March and the Promise Keepers Rally.

Though crowd estimates vary from as low as 60,000 to 70,000 according to ABC News to a high of 2 million by London Daily Mail, photographs and videos of the march and rally demonstrate its enormity.

The taxpayers stormed Washington, D.C., today, taking their fight against excessive spending, bailouts, growth of big government and soaring deficits to the front door of the U.S. Capitol.

All week citizens have been heading to the Hill by the busloads for the showdown today. The Tea Party Patriots' "Tea Party Express" national bus tour has been hosting a series of tea party rallies all across the nation. A caravan of buses, speakers and entertainers arrived in Washington, D.C., just in time for the march. The taxpayers have paid their own way to the event.

The White House said Friday it was unaware of the rally. President Obama has traveled to Minneapolis, Minn., to promote his health-care plans at a rally there.

But so many taxpayers showed up on Pennsylvania Avenue that the crowd ran out of room and the march was forced to begin early.

WND was at the scene to get crowd reaction and take photos of the protest.

Citizens carried hand-made signs that read:

-2010: Vote all incumbents out!

-Our Constitution has termites!

-We are under attack by our own government

Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) is a youth organization dedicated to restoring this republic to its original intended status. The youth of our country are the future, and schools and campuses all across America are forming YAL groups.

YAL is the continuation of Students for Ron Paul (SFP). In less than 8 months, SFP established over 500 college and high school chapters in all 50 states and over 26,000 students joined the Ron Paul 2008 campaign.

With this network, YAL seeks to recruit, train, educate, and mobilize students on the ideals of liberty and the Constitution. This is not a new beginning but a continuation of a youth movement already brewing in this country. Our objective is to facilitate its success.

A member of Young Americans for Liberty is between the ages of 15 and 39 and pays an annual due. Individuals under the age of 15 can still join, but will be considered Junior members. To start, dues are only $10/year. Benefits include subscription to "Young American Revolution" magazine,

If you are not within this age bracket, don't despair! Senior (over 39) YAL members are welcome to join for a $50 annual donation and will receive many of the same great benefits.

YAL Mission Statement

The mission of Young Americans for Liberty (YAL) is to train, educate, and mobilize youth activists committed to "winning on principle." Our goal is to cast the leaders of tomorrow and reclaim the policies, candidates, and direction of our government.

YAL Statement of Principles!

We are the Young Americans for Liberty (YAL). As Americans we recognize the God-given natural rights of life, liberty, and property set forth by our Founding Fathers. Our country was created to protect the freedoms of the individual and directed by we the people.

We recognize that freedom deserves responsibility and therefore we hold ourselves to a high moral character and conduct. Integrity emphasizes our stance towards action. Principle defines our outlook towards government. Peace and prosperity drives our ambitions towards our countrymen.

We inherit a corrupt, coercive world that has lost respect for voluntary action. Our government has failed and dragged our country into moral decay. The political class dominates the agenda with a violent, callous, controlling grip. And, for this we do not stand. We welcome limited government conservatives, classical liberals, and libertarians who trust in the creed we set forth.

WE, as Young Americans for Liberty believe:

- THAT government is the negation of liberty;
- THAT voluntary action is the only ethical behavior;
- THAT respect for the individual's property is fundamental to a peaceful society;
- THAT violent action is only warranted in defense of one's property;
- THAT the individual owns his/her body and is therefore responsible for his/her actions;
- THAT society is a responsibility of the people, not the government.

YAL is in partnership with Campaign for Liberty (campaignforliberty.org) and many other freedom groups and organizations. For more Information, go to www.yaliberty.org/

Kenyan Ambassador admits Obama Born in Kenya on National Radio.

The "Mike In The Morning" show on WRIF radio, in Detroit, Michigan, called the Kenyan Embassy and spoke to the Kenyan Ambassador to the United States, His Excellency Peter Ogengo. In discussion, the question was asked whether President Elect Obama's birth place would be a national "spot" to visit. The Ambassador stated that "it is already an attraction... it is already well known."

This admission is a confirmation of the multiple statements made by Obama's paternal grandmother, referenced by Ambassador Ogogo, about Obama's Kenyan birthplace. Ooops... (See Resource page, P. 22 for audio link)

Obama Eligibility Trial Set for Jan 26, 2010.

The expedited trial has been set for Jan. 26, 2010, just 4 1/2 months from now!

I and many other concerned veterans and citizens attended the hearing today in Federal Court in Santa Ana in the lawsuit against Barack Obama to determine his eligibility to be President and Commander in Chief. About 150 people showed up, almost all in support of the lawsuit to demand that Obama release his birth certificate and other records that he has hidden from the American people.

Judge David Carter refused to hear Obama's request for dismissal today, instead setting a hearing date for Oct. 5, since Obama's attorneys had just filed the motion on Friday. He indicated there was almost no chance that this case would be dismissed. Obama is arguing this lawsuit was filed in the wrong court if you can believe that. I guess Obama would prefer a "kangaroo court" instead of a Federal court! Assuming Judge

Carter denies Obama's motion for dismissal, he will likely then order expedited discovery which will force Obama to release his birth certificate in a timely manner (if he has one).

The judge, who is a former U.S. Marine, repeated several times that this is a very serious case which must be resolved quickly so that the troops know that their Commander in Chief is eligible to hold that position and issue lawful orders to our military in this time of war.

He basically said Obama must prove his eligibility to the court! He said Americans deserve to know the truth about their President!

The two U.S. Attorneys representing Barack Obama tried everything they could to sway the judge that this case was frivolous, but Carter would have none of it and cut them off several times. Obama's attorneys left the courtroom after about the 90 minute hearing looking defeated and nervous. Great day in America for the U.S. Constitution!!! The truth about Barack Obama's eligibility will be known fairly soon -- Judge Carter practically guaranteed it!

Video from the press conference after the hearing coming soon. Congratulations to plaintiffs attorney Dr. Orly Taitz! She did a great job and won some huge victories today. She was fearless! Jeff Schwilk, Founder www.SanDiegoMinutemen.com.

Islam on Capitol Hill

On September 25th there will be a national prayer gathering of Muslims on the west front of the U.S. Capitol Building.

They are expecting at least 50,000 to attend from mosques all across America. They will gather to pray from 4:00 AM until 7:00 PM.

The gathering will take place by the site where U.S. Presidents have been inaugurated since 1981.

The organizers say that it was Obama's inauguration speech in January and his speech broadcast from Egypt in June that gave them the idea for this prayer gathering on Capitol Hill.

The website promoting this vigil http://islamoncapitolhill.com/Home_Page.html states clearly... "OUR TIME HAS COME."

We had better not underestimate Islam's plan for the world... which will likely lead to a major worldwide conflagration in the future. For now, we need to be concerned with America...

Obama-ACORN Gun Conspiracy Exposed

The Association of Community Organizations for Reform (ACORN), a publicly funded national organization is using your tax dollars to actively interfere with the Second Amendment exercise of gun rights in New Jersey and elsewhere.

ACORN went public with its gun control activism when it intervened in an unsuccessful attempt to defend Jersey City, New Jersey, a hot bed of anti-gun rights extremists, to disarm its citizens with a local gun control ordinance. ACORN pushed for stronger local gun restrictions that were already struck down by the New Jersey state court as a violation of state law.

The group made news recently when it was terminated from any U.S. census bureau work when its staff in Baltimore, MD counseled reporters posing as a pimp and a prostitute on how to set up a house of ill repute using tax dollars.

The Obama trained Leftist group ACORN has been exposed again and must have its non profit status removed, return the taxpayers money and have all taxpayer funding pulled.

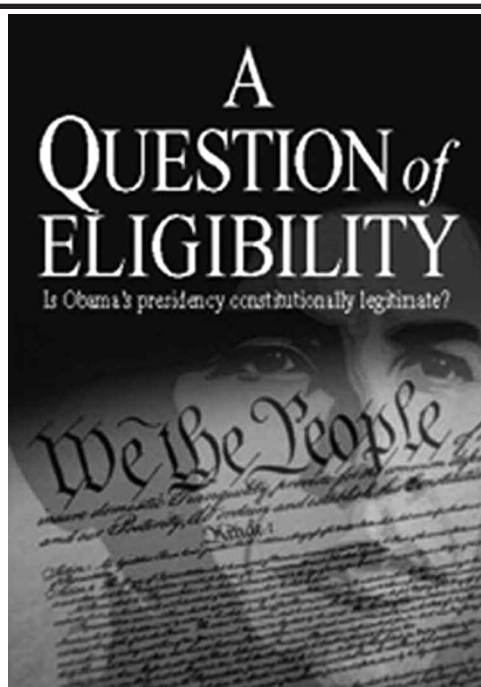

It is an outrage that this group has intervened to defend an anti-gun ordinance that has already been declared illegal by the court. So long as ACORN accepts one penny of public funding, the organization should remain absolutely neutral on social issues, political campaigns and especially legal actions defending the right to keep and bear arms.

Obama Manchurian Candidate

In a lead story published this past weekend on Frontpagemag.com, conservative thinker and See News Briefs, Page 21

WHAT if the president of the United States is not constitutionally eligible to serve? Is it possible that a straightforward criterion was overlooked during a long, grueling, expensive campaign? Why are so many questions about something so simple still going unanswered? "A Question Of Eligibility" goes where no other documentary has dared to go in seeking the answers to those questions, including one that millions of Americans are asking: "Why won't Barack Obama release publicly the long-form birth certificate he claims to have from the state of Hawaii?"

In this video, you will hear from four experts on the subject: Dr. Jerome Corsi, author of the New York Times No. 1 bestseller "The Obama Nation"; Orly Taitz, the Southern California lawyer who has led the legal fight to secure the evidence of Barack Obama's eligibility; Alan Keyes, a third-party presidential candidate in 2008 and the man who challenged Obama for the Illinois U.S. Senate seat that served as a springboard to his presidential ambitions; and Janet Porter, radio talk-show host and political activist who has championed this critical and threatening constitutional issue. Video Presale: <http://www.wnd.com/eligibility> it's not only our right but our duty to dismantle a government turned criminal. The only solution the founders saw to fix that problem was by force of arms in the hands of citizens as we did in 1775.

May seems to think that the words "the people" in the 2nd Amendment don't mean the same thing that those words mean in the 1st, 4th, 9th and 10th amendments. Pretty convoluted reasoning but that's what we've come to expect from him.

May reasons that the founders couldn't have anticipated "automatic assault weapons" (whatever they are) and therefore they should be tightly regulated by the very government that is descending into despotism. Following that line of "reasoning", the founders also couldn't have anticipated radio, TV or the internet, so should those media also be tightly regulated?

Denton May has no idea how ridiculous he sounds when he gets on one of his rants. He is truly his own worst enemy.

Be VERY Afraid if you resist Law!

I write this in full knowledge that there are those who are reading this that are not the recipient(s) who this is intended to for. (Email).

Just talked to a guy whose name shall not be mentioned. He has his people all over the US in military bases and hires people right out of the military. He has first hand knowledge of how the military thinks and this is good news for us.

He said that the military is expecting a revolution in this country and that they have had a plan for about 15 years now for when it happens.

The military will not fire on US citizens and that they will let the revolution happen. He also implied that the military thinks that it needs to happen to get this country back to where it belongs (under the constitution). He mentioned that the military expects the rising to come out of the "L" of the country. This is the part of the country where 99% of the solders come out of.

It covers the Rockies, down through the middle of the country and all through the south. I told him that I don't think that it will happen for people are waking up to the constitution and that they will vote out the liberals and that we will return to sanity. But I also talked to him about voter fraud and he seemed concerned about that but didn't have any hard facts.

This is indeed good news. I know that the patriots of this country are in fear that all the government has to do is call in the military. Well, it won't happen. The government thinks that they can rely on the military for their safety but it will be for naught. In fact, it will be their undoing for they will be on the patriot's side.

Oh yes, and for those who are reading this that are not the recipients, BE AFRAID, BE VERY AFRAID.

Tamiflu linked to "bizarre" reactions

It's yet another case of the cure being worse than the disease.

In the UK, more than half of the kids who have taken Tamiflu -- the antibiotic weapon of choice to combat the H1N1 virus -- have experienced side effects.

Although most of these side effects have been minor (such as stomach cramps and nausea), as many as one in five of these kid have had disturbing, "neuropsychiatric" reactions to the drug.

Reports say that kids have had an inability to think clearly, have suffered from nightmares, and have behaved "strangely."

Unfortunately, these reactions are nothing new. The dangers of Tamiflu are well-documented. It's even been linked to the deaths of some children and teenagers.

It's really no wonder. The drug is not just an antibiotic, like so many assume it is -- it's a neuraminidase inhibitor that blocks viral enzymes that can assist the flu virus in infecting the respiratory tract.

In the U.S., the FDA has acknowledged that there have been as many as 1,800 reports of kids experiencing abnormal behavior when they're given Tamiflu. In Japan, they've actually banned the use of Tamiflu by kids.

But because the UK is in such a cold panic over swine flu, they're handing out Tamiflu like candy. Believe it or not, there's even a telephone hotline and website where people can order a prescription without having to consult a doctor.

So far, as many as 150,000 people have been prescribed the drug in this manner.

It is fundamental political philosophy in America that the people are Sovereign, the Caesar, the King. America holds a unique position in the world because here government is established to serve the people.

No wonder so many kids are having so many side effects. At the first sign of a runny nose or a headache, their parents are pumping them full of Tamiflu, thanks to Dr. Web.

All of these risks in order to reduce the flu symptoms by less than two days. That's right: according to the makers of Tamiflu, clinical tests have shown that the drug only has the ability to reduce the duration of symptoms by about 36 hours.

It just doesn't add up.

Always giving your brain some healthy snacks to chew on.

Peasants, or Sovereigns?

We take for granted freedom of the press, freedom to peacefully assemble, to speak, and hold our religious beliefs. If any of these were stripped away, or encumbered, there would be widespread dissent.

Few know this simple truth: that these "first amendment rights," are neither government grants nor constitutional privileges; but are rather limitations on the power of the federal government. Note that the amendment reads, "Congress shall make no law respecting . . . prohibiting . . . abridging . . ."

Unbeknownst to many, is the Preamble to the Bill of Rights. It begins, "The conventions of a number of the States having at the time of their adopting the Constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added.." The so-called "Bill of Rights" was not intended to be a declaration of the peoples' rights. The Bill of Rights specifies limitations on the powers granted to the federal government by the Constitution.

The Declaration of Independence, the foundation of American law, establishes the principle that the people have a right to abolish their government when it becomes destructive to the end for which it was established. This principle also is expressed in Art. 2 sec. II of the Colorado Constitution. The Declaration of Independence also requires that the people have a duty to throw off their government "when a long train of abuses and usurpations . evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism."

It is a rule of law that the greater

Wall Street To Securitize People's Deaths?

The New York Times published a pretty creepy article on Saturday (September 5th). The article focuses on Wall Street's new plan to make money. What's so bad about Wall Street making money?

Well, their new plan is to buy life insurance plans from elderly and sick people for cash. The example that the New York Times gives is someone selling a million dollar policy for a $400,000 payout, but the payout amount would all depend on the seller's life expectancy. These "life settlements" would then be bundled together to form bonds that can be sold to investors. The investors would start paying for the person's policy from then on. When the person dies, the investors collect on the policy. Apparently, the faster the person dies, the more money the investors make. However, regardless of whether you die sooner or later, Wall Street firms will profit off of fees collected from creating the bonds and facilitating transactions. You could say that Wall Street is planning to "securitize" people's lives (or deaths, as it may be) into a kind of CDO. And we all know how great that whole CDO adventure played out for Wall Street, right? What could be dangerous about creating a similar class of financial products with sick people's life expectancy as the focus?

Apparently, these type of "life settlement" investments aren't new for banks. They already exist in a lot of portfolios. Whats new is the plan to securitize these "life settlements" and market them as a big-time asset class of their own. Keep in mind, this isn't something banks are just talking about potentially doing. The Times states that Credit Suisse is "building a financial assembly line to buy large numbers of life insurance policies, package and resell them — just as Wall Street firms did with subprime securities." Estimates are putting the market for this class of investment product at $500 Billion, according to the article. I don't doubt it one bit. Considering how many people are losing their jobs or facing pay cuts and how high medical bills are these days, does anyone really doubt that there are a whole lot of elderly and sick people out there who would be eager to sell their life insurance policies for an immediate cash payout? Especially if they foresee a future inability to pay their premiums?

So whats the upside? Right now a lot of people just let their life insurance policies lapse. If they're lucky they'll still get a small payout but its usually not much compared to the premiums they've payed up to that point. Under this "life settlement" proposal, policy sellers get a bigger payout and eventually investors get their payout too. So insurance companies end up paying out on their policies more often than they do now. But, insurance companies could end up just raising rates and premiums to make up for the difference, which could end up leaving the average policyholder worse off. Wall Street profits. Insurance companies profit. The consumer pays up.

Still, its hard to really get that angry over a proposal like this. As I pointed out, these type of "life settlements" are already held in a lot of investment bank portfolios. And, who am I to say what kind of financial relationships elderly and sick people should or shouldn't engage in?

But there are so many disturbing ramifications that come out of this proposal that I can't help but be worried. The article mentions that investors lost out on these type of investments in the '80s when people with AIDS ended up living longer thanks to new medications. It also mentions that risk managers

Attention Archuleta County Republicans... Your Next Sheriff is On His Way!

The Archuleta County Guard, along with the Law Club, are in dialog with at least three people willing to run as a Constitutional Sheriff. This means we tap into the Tea Party and 912er Spirit, the Love for the Constitution, and the Freedom and Rights guaranteed all citizens, but which are being ignored by our present Sheriff and other law enforcement and judicial pawns... (video and affidavit proof available), so what do YOU want for YOUR County? Do you want REAL Change, or just more lies and more destruction and manipulation of the power of the people? Wake Up America... our nation is being over-run by criminals!

records, any baptism records, and his adoption records.

In the U.S. Justice Department's motion to dismiss, attorneys didn't address the concerns directly, but instead focused their efforts on technical procedures, suggesting the matter can't be decided in court and that the dozens of plaintiffs cannot demonstrate they have been injured by having Obama in the Oval Office.

"It is clear, from the text of the Constitution, and the relevant statutory law implementing the Constitution's textual commitments, that challenges to the qualifications of a candidate for president can, in the first instance, be presented to the voting public before the election, and, once the election is over, can be raised as objections as the electoral votes are counted in the Congress," wrote Assistant U.S. Attorneys Roger West and David DeJute. "Therefore, challenges such as those purportedly raised in this case are committed, under the Constitution, to the electors, and to the Legislative branch." President Obama's defenders also said they would file a motion seeking to block any discovery of evidence at this point.

Kreep said said his addition to the case probably will mean additional arguments over the president's eligibility.

Among the long list of plaintiffs are former ambassador and presidential candidate Alan Keyes and longshot vice-presidential candidate Gail Lightfoot, both of whom ran in 2008.

Justice officials say because neither had a mathematical chance at winning, they were not directly harmed by the election of Obama.

But among the issues that appear to be looming is a claim that Obama's actual birth certificate from Kenya has emerged.

As WND reported over the holiday weekend, Lucas Smith, the man who tried to sell an alleged Barack Obama Kenyan birth certificate on eBay, filed court papers insisting – under threat of perjury – that the Obama birth certificate in his possession is the genuine article.

Taitz posted on her blog Smith's declaration, which claims he obtained the alleged birth certificate from Coast General Hospital in Mombasa, Kenya, and insists it's real.

"The true and correct photocopy of the birth certificate obtained is attached to this affidavit as Exhibit A," the declaration reads. "I declare, certify, verify, state and affirm under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing statements of fact and descriptions of circumstances and events are true and correct."

Smith's affidavit, which includes a copy of the certificate, has been filed Carter, whose works in the Central District of California.

In his filing, Smith declares that he traveled to Kenya in February and paid off a military officer in order to obtain a copy of the birth certificate from Coast General Hospital in Mombasa. The declaration also states that the hospital administrator signed and sealed the copy, which indicates Obama's birth in Africa on Aug. 4, 1961, at 7:24 p.m.

As WND reported, Smith released a video of the document he claims is a copy of Obama's hospital birth record, though WND's own investigation failed to substantiate the document's authenticity.

WND first reported earlier this year when Lucas Smith, a former resident of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and known by the eBay handle "colmado_naranja," claimed to have a document proving Obama's birth in Mombasa, Kenya.

After promising to reveal the document to WND, Smith then dropped communications with a team of people offering to help him verify the document, only fueling the belief the sale – and therefore the alleged document – was a scam.

WND followed Smith's ongoing saga as "colmado_naranja" as he attempted several times to sell the document, or photos and stories surrounding it, on eBay, only to have the auctions repeatedly removed by site administrators.

WND also launched an investigation into "colmado_naranja," which led through several online aliases and reported collaborators, including Dawnella Wilson, "InspectorSmith" and, eventually, Lucas Smith.

Smith, whose background includes a lengthy criminal record and a reported attempt to sell his kidney to a man in need of organ transplant, nonetheless insists that his motives are above board, even if his past looks dubious.

"I do have a background. I've made mistakes in my life," Smith told WND in an e-mail. "It took a guy like me to go and get tangible proof about Obama. I don't mind breaking a few laws or policies here and there.

I don't mind paying the military in foreign countries to look the other way ... The military [in Africa] will grant you access to anything for just a few dollars. People are starving.

So yes, it takes a guy like me to get things done once in a while." <http://www.wnd.com/index.php?fa=PAGE.printable&pageId=109242>

The Truth About the Health Care Bill - Michael Connelly

Well, I have done it! I have read the entire text of proposed House Bill 3200: The Affordable Health Care Choices Act of 2009. I studied it with particular emphasis from my area of expertise, constitutional law. I was frankly concerned that parts of the proposed law that were being discussed might be unconstitutional. What I found was far worse than what I had heard or expected.

To begin with, much of what has been said about the law and its implications is in fact true, despite what the Democrats and the media are saying. The law does provide for rationing of health care, particularly where senior citizens and other classes of citizens are involved, free health care for illegal immigrants, free abortion services, and probably forced participation in abortions by members of the medical profession.

The Bill will also eventually force private insurance companies out of business and put everyone into a government run system. All decisions about personal health care will ultimately be made by federal bureaucrats and most of them will not be health care professionals. Hospital admissions, payments to physicians, and allocations of necessary medical devices will be strictly controlled.

However, as scary as all of that it, it just scratches the surface. In fact, I have concluded that this legislation really has no intention of providing affordable health care choices. Instead it is a convenient cover for the most massive transfer of power to the Executive Branch of government that has ever occurred, or even been contemplated. If this law or a similar one is adopted, major portions of the Constitution of the United States will effectively have been destroyed.

The first thing to go will be the masterfully crafted balance of power between the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of the U.S. Government. The Congress will be transferring to the Obama Administration authority in a number of different areas over the lives of the American people and the businesses they own. The irony is that the Congress doesn't have any authority to legislate in most of those areas to begin with. I defy anyone to read the text of the U.S. Constitution and find any authority granted to the members of Congress to regulate health care.

This legislation also provides for access by the appointees of the Obama administration of all of your personal healthcare information, your personal financial information, and the information of your employer, physician, and hospital. All of this is a direct violation of the specific provisions of the 4th Amendment to the Constitution protecting against unreasonable searches and seizures. You can also forget about the right to privacy. That will have been legislated into oblivion regardless of what the 3rd and 4th Amendments may provide.

If you decide not to have healthcare insurance or if you have private insurance that is not deemed "acceptable" to the "Health Choices Administrator" appointed by Obama there will be a tax imposed on you. It is called a "tax" instead of a fine because of the intent to avoid application of the due process clause of the 5th Amendment. However, that doesn't work because since there is nothing in the law that allows you to contest or appeal the imposition of the tax, it is definitely depriving someone of property without the "due process of law."

So, there are three of those pesky amendments that the far left hate so much out the original ten in the Bill of Rights that are effectively nullified by this law. It doesn't stop there though. The 9th Amendment that provides: "The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people;" The 10th Amendment states: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are preserved to the States respectively, or to the people." Under the provisions of this piece of Congressional handiwork neither the people nor the states are going to have any rights or powers at all in many areas that once were theirs to control.

I could write many more pages about this legislation, but I think you get the idea. This is not about health care; it is about seizing power and limiting rights. Article 6 of the Constitution requires the members of both houses of Congress to "be bound by oath or affirmation" to support the Constitution. If I was a member of Congress I would not be able to vote for this legislation or anything like it without feeling I was violating that sacred oath or affirmation. If I voted for it anyway I would hope the American people would hold me accountable.

For those who might doubt the nature of this threat I suggest they consult the source. Here is a link to the Constitution: http://www.archives.gov/exhibits/charters/constitution_transcript.html

And another to the Bill of Rights: http://www.archives.gov/exhibits/charters/bill_of_rights_transcript.html

HR 645: Congress Seeks to Authorize & Legalize FEMA Camps

A new bill has been introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives called the National Emergency Centers Act or HR 645. This bill, if passed into law, will direct the Secretary of Homeland Security to establish national emergency centers otherwise known as FEMA camp facilities on military installations. This is an incredibly disturbing piece of legislation considering that the powers that be have already set in motion an agenda to setup a nationwide marital law apparatus through U.S. Northern Command and the Department of Homeland Security.

Apparently, the fusion centers, militarized police, surveillance cameras and a domestic military command is not enough. Even though we know that detention facilities are already in place, they now want to legalize the construction of FEMA camps on military installations using the ever popular excuse that the facilities are for the purposes of a national emergency. With the phony debt based economy getting worse and worse by the day, the possibility of civil unrest is becoming a greater threat to the establishment.

span than just two terms of the U. S. presidency) it was rounding up its own citizens, killing others, abrogating its laws, and turning children against parents, and neighbors against neighbors, all with the best of intentions, of course.

The road to Hell is paved with them. As a practical thinker, one not overly prone to emotional decisions, I have a choice: I can either believe what the objective pieces of evidence tell me (even if they make me cringe with disgust); I can believe what history is shouting to me from across the chasm of seven decades; or I can hope I am wrong by closing my eyes, having another latte, and ignoring what is transpiring around me.

I choose to believe the evidence. No doubt some people will scoff at me; others laugh, or think I am foolish, naive, or both. To some degree, perhaps I am. But I have never been afraid to look people in the eye and tell them exactly what I believe-and why I believe it.

I pray I am wrong. I do not think I am. Perhaps the only hope is our vote in the next elections.

2009-FS10

It is amazing the situation we find ourselves in. We sit in the midst of a collection of State/Nations where 80% of its people claim to be Christians, and believe in God, and yet, in this same union, we have the most unconstitutional, criminal, corrupt, perverted and lawless government the world has ever seen in its history. How can this be?

How is it that, for the most part, so called “churches,” which seem to be mere collections of people wanting to be “Christian social butterflies” not “getting involved” with what they view as “politics?” Where did the message of the Bible get scrambled in their thinking? Is it fear that they allow to rule? Is it simple ignorance...?

Hos 4:6 “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from being priest for Me; Because you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.” NKJV.

This is a sober warning from God that His own people, who claim to be “Christian,” reject knowledge and forget what His words teach. How much we have forgotten from history, and the founding of this Republic. We cannot separate our lives into “spiritual” and “secular.” They are inseparable, and when we allow a wall to exist between the two, we fall prey to the bidding of evil. Separation of church and state is a major deception.

Does anyone remember where most town meetings took place in the 18th century? How about where plans were discussed regarding the revolution, and the oppressive government they saw which clearly countered the freedoms God Himself gave this people? Do we forget where community service projects, protection within the communities and the creation of militias took place?

It was within the church groups where Christians came to learn to be lights to the world. The church buildings (the church is NOT a building, but a collection of those God has called) were the focal point of much activity, including defense against tyrants, and protection of the people. And, yes, they even took their guns to church because a gun is useless locked up in a closet, or not within reach should you need it.

So what has happened? We have become a nation of hearers only. We’ve been watered down by slack, by propaganda, by fear, by “politically correct” separation between church and state, a huge fraud the churches have been deceived by. The Christian community has largely abandoned any sovereignty provided to them from God’s truth.

The churches have seemingly abandoned their calling as lights to the world...

Matt 5:14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. :15 Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.” NKJV

There are approximately 320 million people in America. Subtracting the 80% Christians who claim to believe in God leaves 256 million people, so WHERE ARE THEY in all this? Why have they been chained down from standing for the laws of the land... something God requires of us all? Have most of them become so unaware of the true laws of the land that they accept the counterfeit “laws” created by men who are lawless? God was instrumental in the countless blessings this Republic was given. It was God Himself that gave man, for the first time since before King Saul, self rulership. No more kings, no despots, no tyrants... just rulership “of the People, by the People and for the People.”

This means our Constitution is the supreme law of the land, under God’s law, and yet, 256 million people who believe in God allow unconstitutional activities, rampant corruption and greed, treason, mass sexual sins and so much more, to flourish in our borders, and they remain silent, distant from government affairs, leaving the corruption to grow. What is wrong with this picture?

Luke 5:30 “And their scribes and the Pharisees complained against His disciples, saying,"Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" 31 Jesus answered and said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician , but those who are sick. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance." NKJV.

When the churches hang out among themselves only, and do not get involved with being a physician to our people and government, we simply allow it to grow and fester into worse things. It can do nothing else but. Christianity has abandoned or forgot the command of Christ:

Luke 19:13 “So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten minas, and said to them, 'Do business till I come.'" NKJV.

Are we doing that business... being about our Father’s business, of reaching out to the people of the world as examples? The government and many citizens are clearly sick, and yet we neglect them.

Rev 3:14 "And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write, These things says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God: 15 I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. 16 So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth. 17 Because you say,'I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing' — and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked — 18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. 21 To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."NKJV

Here, Christ speaks directly to a portion of His church... a group of people complacently “playing church” while they are doing nothing to defend His name or our own laws, although believing they are spiritually “rich.” What happened to their lights?

Matt 5:14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.” NKJV

While there certainly are many Christians involved with the patriot movement, defending freedoms and rights, and shining their lights through teaching, leading and standing with God’s help against the forces that are clearly trying to suppress freedoms and Christian values, a vast majority of Christians are doing

The Archuleta County Law Club

The Law Club meets every other Monday evening. A legal firm's Powerpoint presentations on Causes of Action, writing complaints, filing motions and presentations of Facts and Law in Court was presented.

The next Law Club meeting will be Monday, September 28th, at the Mountain Christian Fellowship in Aspen Springs, just off 160, at 6:30. Call 903-5325 if you need directions.

The Archuleta County Guard (ACG)

The Guard meets on alternate Mondays. This past meeting on Sept. 21st was a training session in the Constitution... specifically various Articles, and a Constitutional test was given. Discussion of recent events involving illegal presentment of a gun in a local drinking establishment, and various apparently illegal activities by law enforcement regarding the person arrested.

Next Archuleta County Guard meeting will be Monday, September 7th, 6:30 at the same location as the Law Club meeting.

LaPlata County Guard (LCG)

Dialog with local residents continues regarding a LaPlata County Guard group, including possible Law club/legal instruction. Any LaPlata County citizens who want to learn about the Constitution, law, proper legal actions, how to defend yourself against court abuse or how to bring charges yourself against criminal actions, you NEED the Guard. Contact Ron Tate at 883-2442, or email him at rontateco@gmail.com.

Citizens Requesting a Grand Jury Formation!

If you know of criminal or unconstitutional activities, Due Process right violations, oppressive law enforcement or county governments, or any other questionable activity in your county, then you should demand this Grand Jury and begin presenting evidence, and have them begin investigations into activities in your area.

The Archuleta County Guard, and Pagosa Law Club are providing documents for any citizen who wishes to join in the fight to restore our freedoms and to curb corruption and criminal activities in your area. This will be a request for a Grand Jury to be formed, and should be sent to Judge Gregory Lyman, District DA Todd Risberg, Sheriff Pete Gonzalez and Sheriff Duke Schirard, for Archuleta and LaPlata Counties, or their counterparts in any other county.

Simply go to <http://southwestfreepress.com/resource-library.html> and look for "Grand Jury documents," and open or save them to your computer. These are for Archuleta and LaPlata county officials, so if you are from another county, customize them for your people. No computer? Call us and we'll get them to you. This is an easy step to support your rights.

This is an official request for a Grand Jury, and for our elected officials who swore an oath to defend our rights to show they support the public and their freedoms.

If this request is denied, we will take the next step to hold our public servants accountable. Please download these documents, and customize them if need be, but get these out and send them in, NOW!

4-Corner Liberty Restoration Group

We are having very interesting speakers talk about the issues that are going to impact us for generations to come. Our last one was a local Durango doctor who talked with us about his experience in the health care industry and where he sees the current bill in Congress to be very detrimental to our society and future health care needs.

We will be having 59th Congressional candidate Lew Webb at our next meeting 10/5/09 to have an open forum question and answering session to see where he stands on the issues.

Also Nov. 21st we will be hosting "The Making of America" constitutional seminar put on by National Center for Constitutional Studies. Cleon Skousen was the founder of this organization.

Sessions include: Morning - "The Perfect Plan of Liberty," and Afternoon - "Developing America's Great Success Formula."

Dear President Obama...

- Why are you hiding your real birth certificate?
- Where did the "transparency" you promised go?
- Why are you doing everything opposite to what you promised us?
- Why do you want to change our country to a socialist loser nation?
- Why are you violating your Oath of Office to defend the Constitution, and American People
- Why are you spending us into a black hole of debt mathematically impossible to pay off? Both Obama and his critical teleprompter are afraid to answer these questions truthfully. His actions during the last 8 months, however, do not lie. The facts compiled in this book will send a shiver down your spine and give you all the ammunition to win arguments with liberal co-workers. Ask them if this is the hope and change they voted for.

WARNING: Drug Cartel Exposed Creating, Releasing, Injecting, Infecting and Depopulating Planet with Pandemic H1N1/H5N1 Viruses and Vaccines.

Los Angeles, CA—World leading drug-industry investigators have uncovered stunning documents proving an international drug ring, operating from New York City, is behind the H1N1 swine flu fright and vaccination preparations.

Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz, America's leading consumer health expert, and Sherri Kane, an investigative journalist, have released shocking proof in legal affidavits that leaders of a private global biotechnology "trust" are behind everything you ever heard about pandemic flu, including its origin and alleged prevention via vaccinations. Their documents, being sent by attorneys to the FBI this week, evidence powerful industrialists are operating a crime ring within the "Partnership for New York City" (PNYC), and are behind the pandemic's creation, media persuasions, vaccination preparations, and health official promotions seen everywhere from supermarkets to health clinics.

"David Rockefeller's trust, that engages several powerful partners on Wall Street, including media moguls Ruppert Murdoch, Morton Zuckerman, Thomas Glocer, and former Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Jerry Speyer, are implicated in advancing global genocide," Dr. Horowitz wrote to FBI directors.

"This 'partnership' controls biotechnology research and development globally. Health commerce internationally is also controlled virtually entirely by this trust that exercises near complete control over mainstream media to promote/propagandize its products and services for the drug cartel's organized crime. This trust, in essence, makes or breaks medical and natural healing markets, primarily through the mass media companies and propaganda it wields for social engineering and market building," Dr. Horowitz wrote.

Among the most stunning revelations from the Horowitz-Kane research are those linking Larry Silverstein of Silverstein Properties, Inc., and the 9-11 terrorist attacks, to the drug cartel's geopolitical, economic, and population reduction activities. Mr. Silverstein, leaser of the World Trade Center who authorized to have Building-7 "pulled," meaning detonated, is a chief suspect in the "9-11 truth" investigation. Silverstein is currently landlord and co-partner in the biotechnology trust founded by David Rockefeller and implicated by these new discoveries.

"If these people can get away with killing more than 3,000 people in 8 seconds on 9-11, they are completely capable of murdering millions, even billions, of people worldwide this flu season," Dr. Horowitz commented. "I pray these revelations will save millions of lives and help activists call upon President Barack Obama to demand legitimate inquiries into these genocidal atrocities."

"If these people can get away with killing more than 3,000 people in 8 seconds on 9-11, they are completely capable of murdering millions, even billions, of people worldwide this flu season," Dr. Horowitz commented. "I pray these revelations will save millions of lives and help activists call upon President Barack Obama to demand legitimate inquiries into these genocidal atrocities."

Given the unprecedented nature and urgency of these findings, Dr. Horowitz has posted his affidavit for public review on FLUscam.com, praying other activist will spread the information in order to prompt governments worldwide to cease mass vaccination preparations to avoid becoming accessories to the crime of genocide.

"The last time I contacted the FBI I warned them about the impending anthrax attacks one week before the first mailings were announced in the press," Dr. Horowitz recalled. "It took them 6 months to respond. When they did, they made me a suspect in the mailings. This time I am warning the Justice Department a month before the deadliest genocide in history. I'm praying they'll take kindly to my appeal for a PNYC investigation, and Court-ordered injunction, to stop the vaccinations for public protection."

Editor's Note:

If there hasn't been enough scientific information already provided about the Vaccination agenda, and threats to health, for people to realize the dangers, then all we can saw is God help those who are being led to a slow slaughter. Blind trust of those who control you... your masters is a sure sign of slavery, and of where our country is headed!

FREE PRESS DONATIONS: KEEP FREEDOM RINGING!

The Free Press has received numerous requests for papers to go to Northern Colorado, across to Michigan and beyond, and across the Southeast, to Missouri and beyond. People are hungry for truth, and for being able to do something to defend liberty.

People are stepping up to help distribute the Free Press, in many places, but this takes money to print all these papers. We actually could print 10,000 or more copies with contacts we have... from truckers traveling across America, North and South, to visitors who want to bring bundles of the paper back with them to their home areas to give to patriots in their area. Freedom is popular!

The Free Press is free to all, but it is NOT free to produce. It takes large amounts of finances and work to produce this paper, so we decided to offer a way for each and every one of YOU to support this paper as a way to, at least, be able to make a payment toward what you personally believe in, and perhaps can't get involved in other ways to support freedoms. The paper has been produced since early February, and no one has received one thin dime for the full time work that has gone into this paper since. Will that stop us??? NO!!!! The issue isn't "making" money, it is freedom and educating us all on the threats we face. We will fight this battle till there's nothing left to fight for... PERIOD!

If you believe in this message... believe in this country... believe in standing together to warn... to encourage our fellow citizens... to make a stand in the only way you can, then this is your opportunity to make a decision. You can simply nod your head that "something needs to be done," or node your head and stand up and donate to the Southwest Free Press.

Are we asking for thousands or hundreds? YES! However, if you can simply make a monthly donation of $50... $20... $10... $5...even $1... this would go to help the cause, and you would be making your payment for freedom in the best way you can, and THAT is honorable, even if it is $1! No one would castigate you for doing only what you can for supporting your Country and County!

Now, 6500 plus papers go out across the Southwest, and into half a dozen other states right now, with the potential to reach dozens more. Imagine sending a message to 20, 30 40 states? Imagine not being frustrated any longer about not knowing what to do with what you know is wrong. THIS is a way to "DO SOMETHING!" If you love your country... if you love your freedoms...if you are sick and tired of the idiocy taking place across this country by our so-called representatives... then SEND THEM A MESSAGE ACROSS THIS COUNTRY!

To donate to this war for Freedom, go to southwestfreepress.com/donate.html and pay through PayPal, or by credit card using the link provided, or mail in your donation to P.O. Box 2923, Pagosa Springs, CO 81147. Every little bit helps in this fight... PLEASE help us to get this information out to all those requesting this paper.

Day of Reckoning coming to Americans

simply read the constitution, re-read their oath of office, seek out retired officers for guidance, and remember this very carefully—to brutalize citizens in the pursuit of order, is a guaranteed recipe for resistance. PLEASE do not pit yourselves (all 650,000 officers at all levels in the US) against a seething and angry populace who outnumber you 5000 to 1. Believe me; you want all of us working with you, not against you.

Have you been made aware of the massive roadblock plans to stop all travelers for a vaccine bracelet (stainless steel band with a micro-chip on board) that will force you to take the shot? Refuse it? You will be placed on a prison bus and taken to a quarantine camp. What will you do when your children are NOT allowed into school without the shot? What will you do when you are not allowed into the workplace without the vaccine paperwork? Buy groceries? Go to the bank? Shop anywhere?? Get on a plane, bus or train? Use the toilet in the mall? Nope. Police officers will become loathed, feared, despised and remembered for their “official” duties.

This nation is racing at interceptor speed toward a day of reckoning that has never been dreamed of. The lack of common sense, unusual brutality, and unintended consequences of the days of fall and winter will turn our overweight, undereducated, unchurched, and unprepared society into a wasteland of the abused and uncared for leftovers.

I have hundreds of police officers at all levels and military men placing their careers on the line with information that confirms every shred of the worst case scenario.

The recent training session in Crystal Falls gave people from all over the Midwest, an opportunity to taste independence, teamwork and hope. The singleness of purpose and deep caring for others who an half hour before were unknowns, proved to us all that freedom, honesty, personal skills based on common sense and preparation REALLY DO WORK!! We will never forget that time together. The caring folks who have asked me to come and speak to them about these same issues are precious examples of Americans who are willing to make the effort to have someone—ANYONE—help them see some daylight. We are beginning to make a difference, thanks to them.

The reason hundreds of others have sent for the DVD seminar, is because they could not get to a live seminar. They have seen the need, are sharing the information and are 100 to 1 grateful for it. One guy calling himself the “anti-rights American” told me precisely what he thought of me and others like me (implied). I cannot state it here. One other said it was useless to him since he was a Viet Nam veteran involved with MAC-SOG training and forward combat experience. I replied to him that many of the folks who were thrilled and let us know that, were not in his league. You decide, and no matter how I would like to be one of hundreds providing this service, I am one of a VERY few. I am told that no one else is willing to commit to a live audience or DVD, the things that I say.

That was certainly true of the issues covered at the in-field session held last week. It is time to lay down some plans that will get you through the galactic storm that is almost upon us. Do all you can. Do what you must. If you hesitate, you will become a quarantine camp victim or a casualty.

I have hundreds of police officers at all levels and military men placing their careers on the line with information that confirms every shred of the worst case scenario. You have been warned thousands of times, and yet you dismiss me and many others out of hand as nut-jobs, because we went out to the twig part of the branch to bring you information that freedom loving true remnant patriots must have.

I do not know entirely where amerika is in these perilous times in regard to the Holy Scriptures, but I will tell you this. We have welcomed the evil that has gripped this land and deserve whatever is retribution from God. I do cling to the hope that we will make some difference to others, if we will just not give in to the sweet assurances offered by the deceiver in charge of the nation and his winged monkeys on Capital Hill. The federal courts are basically the living room of hell for wrongfully accused citizens who have no other choice but to submit to the mouth of the lion.

“Look up, for your redemption draweth nigh,” is sufficient for the Believer. For the smug, anti-Christian militants, gay rights activists, brutality minded judges and others. Look straight ahead, for your moment of accountability before fed-up Americans is closer than you care to think.

To dear friend Alan Stang’s family, you are in Liz and my fervent prayers. A giant oak has fallen. We will deeply miss his strength and the comfort of his intellect, love of country, and courage very rarely equaled. Good-bye friend, see you later! Please see to it that his family does not want for a thing.

In Foreclosure, or not? Anyone with a Mortgage MUST Hear this!

There still seems to be a great deal of confusion regarding the actual elements of a mortgage deal. Whether you are in foreclosure now, drawing close to it, or doing fine with your payments, you still have the right and duty to understand your mortgage agreement, and what the laws state regarding your rights to obtain validation of all the facts to be sure you are not a victim of fraud and identity theft.

A mortgage consists of a Note or Deed of Trust, and the loan. When you sign this paperwork, this creates a negotiable instrument... a security which can and does produce income for those who have been using it for such behind your back.

It is like this: Say someone advertises that they have money to lend you for a home. You get to closing, sign the documents. You’ve received certain revealed information regarding this contract, and some not revealed. You believe that this “pretender lender” is the actual funder of your loan, but in most cases, they are NOT.

In many cases, these “pretender lenders” have “presold” your loan to investors, unbeknownst to the investors (which is illegal). Let’s say that your home was valued at $250,000. The pretender lender takes this “offer” to the investor, telling them that they have a home loan of $500,000 they can invest in.

The investor provides the $500,000 to the pretender lender, they in turn use $250,000 for the mortgage deal, and pools the other $500,000 along with a million other such deals, creating a huge reservoir of money which they use to create even MORE money... all based on YOUR signature and contract. Seem fair and legal to you? How would you feel about this?

Imagine that a number of people in this little scheme make lots of money, and actually produce enough that they often pay off your original lender which means YOUR mortgage is now fully paid. However, they carry on the subterfuge and don’t let you know what has been happening.

This is a violation of law on multiple fronts: 1. They did NOT disclose to you, the true lender.

2. They did not disclose to you their planned use of this negotiable instrument and your identity to create more wealth... using your very contract.

If it is YOUR signature, and YOUR contract which created this additional wealth, WHOSE had been genetically modified to include a well-known weed and insect killer.

Strilli Oppenheimer's indigenous African chickens were refusing to eat the mealies in the chicken feed bought from a large supplier. Concerned that the birds may be ingesting genetically modified maize, she had the maize tested.

The results confirmed Oppenheimer's initial suspicion -- the maize had been genetically engineered to produce proteins that are toxic to certain insects and weeds.

About her chickens' refusal to eat their maize, Oppenheimer said: "They're smart."

Mexico is outraged over influx of its own citizens.

The United States is a sovereign nation, not a subsidiary of Mexico, and American taxpayers are not responsible for the welfare of Mexico's citizens. It's time for Mexico - and its citizens - to stop parasitically feeding off the United States and start taking care of its citizens' own needs.

The shoe is on the other foot, and the Mexicans from Sonora don't like it one bit. Can you believe the nerve of these people? It's almost funny.

The state of Sonora is angry at the influx of Mexicans into Mexico. Nine state legislators from the state of Sonora traveled to Tucson to complain about Arizona's new employer crackdown on illegal immigrants from Mexico.

It seems that many illegal immigrants from Mexico are returning to their hometowns, and the officials in the Sonora state government are ticked off about it. A delegation of nine state legislators from Sonora was in Tucson recently to say Arizona's new employer sanctions law will have a devastating effect on the Mexican state. At a news conference the legislators said Sonora, Arizona's southern neighbor comprised mostly of small towns, cannot handle the demand for housing, jobs and schools it will face as Mexican workers here return to their country without jobs or money..

The Arizona law, which took effect Jan. 1, punishes employers who knowingly hire individuals who don't have valid legal documents to work in the United States. Penalties include suspension or loss of business licenses. Because more companies are complying, illegal immigrants are finding it more difficult to find work, so they are going home.

The Mexican legislators are angry because the influx of their own citizens is placing a burden on the state government.

"How can they pass a law like this?" asked Mexican representative Leticia Amparano-Gomez, who represents Nogales.

"There is not one person living in Sonora who doesn't have a friend or relative working in Arizona," she said, speaking in Spanish. "Mexico is not prepared for this, for the tremendous problems it will face as more and more people working in Arizona and sending money to their families, return to their hometowns without jobs."

Dr. Ron Paul, Prepares a Vaccine Freedom Bill.

More than 2 million emails to legislators, governors and decision makers later, dr. ron paul's office called natural solutions foundation today to tell us that he is preparing a bill to give you a real choice: no vaccines, no incarceration, no punishment.

His office tells us the bill will be introduced shortly and we will keep you informed! We are profoundly appreciative of Dr. Paul.

Right now, we need to keep up the pressure by sending this Action Item for every member of your family and motivating everyone you know to do the same: http://salsa.democracyinaction.org/o/568/campaign.jsp?campaign_KEY=27275

Squalene adjuvanted vaccines may come to be regarded not as the source of Gulf War Syndrome, but perhaps Swine Flu Vaccine Syndrome or, more accurately, Sebelius Syndrome. Perhaps the Secretary would welcome having such remarkable pain, disability, suffering and death named in her honor. The vaccines that she licensed today will bring that to untold millions of people, young and old, unless we demonstrate our determination to have coercive vaccinations removed from our lives, our families and our country

We also need to support Dr. Paul's bills to guarantee us the right to share truthful health information without the FDA gag rules that limit what can be said and give the government openings to attack companies and professionals who are telling the truth about their products, but being attacked for it.

Cameras keep track of all cars entering Medina

City signs have a unique way of greeting people. In Issaquah, for instance, motorists are told they're entering "a special place where people care." For years, Bothell invited people to stay "for a day or a lifetime."

In Medina, a new sign bears this warning: "You Are Entering a 24 Hour Video Surveillance Area."

Cameras have recently been installed at intersections to monitor every vehicle coming into the city.

Under the "automatic license plate recognition" project, once a car enters Medina, a camera captures its license-plate number. Within seconds, the number is run through a database.

If a hit comes up for a felony — say, the vehicle was reported stolen or is being driven by a homicide suspect — the information is transmitted instantaneously to police, who can "leap into action," said Police Chief Jeffrey Chen.

"These cameras provide us with intelligence," Chen said. "It gets us in front of criminals. I don't like to be on a level playing field with criminals."

He declined to give the number and location of all the cameras.

Medina — a city of 3,100 with an average household income of $222,000 — had discussed the idea for years as a way to discourage crime, city officials said.

Last year, there were 11 burglaries, Chen said.

"Some people think [that number of burglaries] is tolerable," he said. "But even one crime is intolerable."

All captured information is stored for 60 days — even if nothing negative turns up, he said. That allows police to mine data if a crime occurs later, Chen said.

Doug Honig, spokesman for the American Civil Liberties Union of Washington, said such a system smacks of privacy violations.

"Government shouldn't be keeping records of people's comings and goings when they haven't done anything wrong," he said. "By actions like this, we're moving closer and closer to a surveillance society."

Medina City Council member Lucius Biglow said crime prevention "outweighs concern over privacy."

"Privacy is considerably less nowadays than it was, say, 50 years ago," he said. "I think most of us are pretty well-documented by the federal government ... simply because of the Internet and credit cards."

It's no secret cameras are everywhere — in stores, streets, parks and intersections where police want to cite drivers for running red lights.

includes the lesser. A greater right includes a lesser right; a greater duty includes a lesser duty. Since the people have a right, nay, a duty to abolish, to throw off their government when it becomes destructive to the end for which it was established, the lesser right, the lesser duty, includes holding the government accountable. The government is an agent of the people. The Constitution is a grant of power. The people have a duty to hold their government to account. How is this duty exercised?

Another right is mentioned in the First Amendment to the federal constitution. This right also is mentioned in the Colorado Constitution: the right to petition the government for redress of grievances. This right, known as the "capstone right," provides the people an avenue to hold the government accountable, a means to check their servant

On November 9, 2009, We the People Congress invites America to stand with us as we host this historical Continental Congress not to amend the Constitution, but to defend it.

when it gets out of line. The reason for the right to peaceably assemble is to discuss grievances against the government. Look at the First Amendment again: Congress shall make no law . . . abridging . . . the right of the people to peaceably assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

Inherent in the right to petition for redress of grievances is the duty of the government to answer such petitions. The Magna Carta, where the right has its origin, declares that if such a petition goes unanswered after forty days, the people may seize the lands and possessions of the king until such time as the petition is answered. America's founding fathers petitioned

King George for redress of grievances many times, all of which not only went unanswered, and were met with repeated injury. Finally, in 1776, the founders determined that the King's silence warranted a separation, and thus the Declaration of Independence was written.

About ten years ago, a group called We the People Congress was formed. This Congress petitioned the government for redress of grievances on constitutional issues such as: America's involvement in wars without declarations of war, the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, the Patriot Act, the North American Union, and the failure of the President to enforce the immigration laws - each an abuse of federal power. Despite many opportunities to respond, the government refused to answer our petitions.

So we sued the government, asking the court to direct the government to answer the petitions. The court ruled that the government has no obligation to respond. We appealed, the court of appeals upheld the ruling. The Supreme Court twice refused to hear the case.

The Congress will convene for two weeks with three non-governmental delegates elected from each state to discuss what a free people are to do when their government turns against the people and holds the people's petitions for redress of grievances in contempt.

A national election for delegates to represent the people at the Continental Congress will be held October 10, 2009. For more information about the Continental Congress, the Candidates and polling locations, dial toll free 1-877-225-6059, Code 9, or go to www.givemeliberty.org.

From: Captain Glenn Hieronymus
Subject: Air/Travel Safety as Seen by Air Captain Glen Hieronymus

I have received many calls from people concerning the laws on guns in the cockpit and the time I was hijacked before September 11th. I hear from people who say things like, "You had a gun, and with it prevented the hijacking. Now, many of the politicians in the Northeast United States are still against having guns in the cockpit. What's up with that?!"

There is so much information that I would like for the general public to be aware of today. There are things that I would like for you to know directly about past, present, and future air safety, especially now. I am able to pass this on to you as a former international jumbo jet captain and Federal Certified Air Traffic Controller with over 45 years of aviation experience.

WARNING: There are weaknesses and breakdowns in the system that need to be fixed!

In recent national news, there has been controversy about pilots being hired without proper experience and other problems, resulting in incidents and accidents. This has raised concerns of the traveling public. There is a large gap in the number of air traffic controllers retiring versus the number being hired, as well as their qualifications.

nothing at all... and deceive themselves that they are to separate themselves from the world and hide their lights. What a shame, to themselves and to our Creator.

Matt 7:21 "Not everyone who says to Me,'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!' NKJV

If the churches took the lead... realized their duty, their responsibility to show forth true law, whether Biblical or secular, then we would have an immediate change across this country... a renaissance of “change we can believe in,” not based on countless lies from supposed leaders, but based on true laws and an example of how things can really work.

If you believe that God first raised up this country and provided the freedoms to promote the true biblical knowledge through people ruling themselves, and then commanded those same people to hide away from shedding light and truth to the world, and to uphold their personal responsibilities to defend that light and truth to raise up moral and godly children, then the churches have indeed become luke warm and are deceiving others in this fraud as well.

What did Christ say about us in this world?

John 17:15 “I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one.” NKJV

This is reference to our being in this world, being doers and not hearers only, trusting in God’s help...

James 1:22 “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.” NKJV

The law of the land is being violated by not only corrupt governments, but by the churches themselves because of lack of knowledge. How?

MONEY IS IT REALLY that they took? If your loan was paid off, why are you still paying someone who claims to be the lender or “Holder in Due Course,” and yet can’t even produce the actual, original note? (Don’t have ANY standing to foreclose on you OR receive your monthly payments because they are NOT the true lender).

When they “sold” your Note or Loan, (separating the note from the loan), transfered servicing, or whatever juggling act they’ve done, they’ve broken and essentially destroyed the contract.

Now, what can YOU do, regardless of where you are in any mortgage? FIRST, and VITALLY important... obtain a Qualified Written Request (QWR) document. A QWR is a means you have to request documentation, verification, and prove they are the true Holder of the Note.

They are required by law to respond within 60 days. Send the QWR to all the mortgage companies or banks you’ve dealt with on the present loan you have. ReFi’s stop the original mortgage, and a new one is established, so the QWR needs to go to all those who have been involved with receiving money from you on the ReFi.

The QWR can be downloaded as either a PDF or a Word Document at southwestfreepress.com. You simply customize the information with your personal details, the banks/mortgage company, account number, etc., and send it in, certified mail. Their response will tell the tale, and provides a paper trail for you to take the next steps.

The possible issues here are fraud, nondisclosure of required facts, possible fraud on the original investor, concealing of security interests you have in the creation of all the money made without your knowledge, falsification of documents and more, so you MUST investigate this.

Obtain the QWR documents (which they won’t be able to do except through worthless responses) and you can then have a forensic audit done on your mortgage contract, (if necessary, but likely this won’t be necessary) and this will essentially crush them in their attempts to steal what they never paid for.

Lastly, you should go down to your local issue to get lost. A citizen can withstand FBI when they are OUT OF THEIR JURISDICTION, and on gun rights and ownership, they are OUT OF THEIR JURISDICTION. What part of illegal and unconstitutional don’t they understand???

Obama's Grab for Internet: FCC to Embrace Net Neutrality

The FCC today will announce plans for 'Net Neutrality' -- President Barack Obama’s plan for the Federal Communications Commission to prevent Internet service providers from supposedly interfering with the free flow of information. But conservative critics say the plan would create a backdoor way for the FCC to tighten federal control over the information superhighway.

1. 501(c)(3) tax exempt status is seeking government’s permission for something that the churches already posses via the Constitution. This status allows government to dictate, via an agreed upon contract with the government, what the churches can and cannot say, but this is not well known within church groups. That is the law churches have agreed to by seeking tax exempt status with corrupt governments. This means the government can legally and contractually stop you from speaking out about any Biblical subject because churches agreed to it.

2. The 1040 tax return documents church members routinely file is an oath that they are government employees, (according to the code) and liable for “income” tax, which, in most cases, is not true but millions sign this under penalty of “perjury” that it is true. This is self assessment, and admission of your debt to government... a debt you simply do not constitutionally owe, and making a statement that is NOT true.

In many other ways, church members have entered into contracts with secular government, serving this government, paying this government to support abortions, illegal and unconstitutional wars, greed, and much more... so how does this serve God or mankind?

The vast majority of Christianity base their comfort zone on false knowledge, false beliefs and false practices. God expects this Republic to be a model nation, but it has become a den of thieves, a corrupt people, bringing reproach on God’s very name and His blessings which went out to the world through His support. God warned of punishment if this lawlessness happened, and we are seeing the direct fruits of our own slack and irresponsibility toward the Constitution, and it’s foundation, God’s word. God WILL allow this nation to fall as witness against our own works, or lack of works if we remain luke warm. Is it already too late for this Republic?

Next Article, we will be addressing the “Rapture Theory,” and how it is a misapplication of scriptures, and provides a false hope to Christians.

Recorder’s office, and look up all the things filed on your property... you just need a copy of the page listing all filings, NOT a copy of all filings, and have them certify this print out. This will reveal another illegal element of your mortgage... likely, that the claimed “owner” of the mortgage did NOT register ANY interest in your property, which they are required by law to do.

These are simply steps which the Truth in Lending Act, (TILA) and other laws have to protect us from predatory lending practices, which most have been since at least 2001. All this information is public information and available from multiple sources.

The Law club works on these and many other public issues, gathering this public information sources and pointing others to where they can begin helping themselves understand the law and their rights.

Oh, and one more thing... if you have a conscience problem about “owing” on a loan, the QWR will help you determine WHO should be paid, if anyone by now, or that you own your property free and clear of any mortgage. You simply have to act!!!!!!

Census worker hanged with 'fed' on body.

The FBI is investigating the hanging death of a U.S. Census worker near a Kentucky cemetery, and a law enforcement official told the Associated Press the word 'fed' was scrawled on the dead man's chest.

The body of Bill Sparkman, a 51-year-old part-time Census field worker and occasional teacher, was found Sept. 12 in a remote patch of the Daniel Boone National Forest in rural southeast Kentucky.

The Census has suspended door-to-door interviews in rural Clay County, where the body was found, pending the outcome of the investigation.
